

A Message to the Media

Welcome to the 2004 Champions Tour and our 25th season, which we enter with much anticipation and great enthusiasm. We look forward to working with our many friends in the news media over the course of our 30 official Charles Schwab Cup events this year.

The Champions Tour has focused significant attention and energy over the last two years to enhance its product and position in the marketplace. These efforts are paying off as the Tour is experiencing a rising tide in terms of the competition, attendance, fan response, player interaction and sponsor interest.

Today, it is a different kind of Tour. From a competitive standpoint, it features golf played at a very high level. Its roster includes players who are approachable, accessible and seeking to make a genuine connection with fans and sponsors. The Champions Tour balances competitive excellence with a high entertainment value, valuable game-improvement platform, integrity and sportsmanship, while giving back to charity and the communities where it plays.

Last year offered many great story lines, both inside and outside the ropes. The season ended on a very high note at Sonoma, CA, with Jim Thorpe winning the Charles Schwab Cup Championship and Tom Watson capturing the Charles Schwab Cup. Tom donated his $1-million prize to charity and a significant portion to ALS in support of his longtime caddie and dear friend, Bruce Edwards, who is suffering from the disease.

From January through October, we were treated to many exciting moments, including 25 different players winning at least one event, incredible major championships and a down-to-the-wire Player of the Year race eventually won by Tom Watson. We also experienced the Tour's debut on The Golf Channel, several talented and personable rookies, including three-time winner Craig Stadler, and a very successful full phase-in of the Fan Features program.

There are many reasons to be excited about 2004, starting with a 30-tournament schedule offering more than $52.7 million in official prize money. The Tour welcomes one new event, the Champions Tour at Augusta Pines in Houston, and Outback Steakhouse, the Blue Angels and Commerce Bank as new title sponsors in Tampa, Pensacola and Long Island, respectively. The schedule features a smooth geographic flow and much continuity in terms of title sponsors, host communities, organizations and venues. It will once again include 12 Georgia-Pacific Grand Champions events for members age 60 and over.

The fresh faces of PGA TOUR champions Jerry Pate, Jay Haas, Peter Jacobsen, Mike Reid and Keith Fergus, among others, will join their many friends on the Champions Tour in 2004, as will two former Ryder Cup captains, Sam Torrance and Mark James, and 50-time international winner Mark McNulty. They will be joined by other notables in the next few years, names such as Strange, Norman, Hoch, O'Meara, Cook, Price, Faldo and more. The Golf Channel, which made so many contributions last year, is poised to advance its Champions Tour coverage with extensive promotion, programming and innovation throughout the year.

As always, charity will continue to be a primary stimulus for much of what we and our 30 tournaments do on the Champions Tour in 2004. Collectively, the three tours of the PGA TOUR have now generated more than $800 million for organizations in the United States and elsewhere since 1938, and we look forward to growing that number in 2004.

In closing, we appreciate your coverage of this Tour and sharing with the public the many good stories there are to tell about our members. We look forward to working with you in the year ahead and remind you our entire communications team stands ready to assist you whenever the need arises.

See you on Tour in 2004!

Sincerely,

Timothy W. Finchem

We Are The PGA TOUR

The name of our organization is the PGA TOUR, a tax-exempt membership group of professional golfers that plays more than 100 official-money tournaments on three TOURs – the PGA TOUR, Champions Tour and Nationwide Tour. Our headquarters are located in Ponte Vedra Beach, FL, southeast of Jacksonville.

We should never be referred to as the PGA as we are a different organization than the PGA (of America). We are the PGA TOUR. On second reference, you can call us the TOUR.

The PGA is the Professional Golfers' Association of America, a membership organization for the nation's club professionals. The PGA runs the PGA Championship, Senior PGA Championship and Ryder Cup Matches, among other championships. The PGA headquarters are located in Palm Beach Gardens, FL.

The PGA TOUR and PGA of America were affiliated until 1968, when the tournament players, a small subset of the total PGA membership, broke away to form the Tournament Players Division and gain more control of their finances and tournament schedule. The Tournament Players Division was renamed the PGA TOUR in 1975. While the two organizations still work closely together today, the PGA TOUR and PGA of America are separate entities.

Two other American golf organizations are involved in men's professional tournament play, independent of the PGA TOUR but with their marquee events included on the PGA TOUR schedule as non-PGA TOUR cosponsored tournaments. The United States Golf Association, with headquarters in Far Hills, NJ, oversees the national championships (U.S. Open, U.S. Senior Open, U.S. Amateur, U.S. Women's Amateur, etc.) and administers the Rules of Golf, among other duties. The Augusta (GA) National Golf Club plays host to the Masters Tournament.

In 2003, two of our TOURs were renamed to create a closer brand family under the PGA TOUR umbrella. The Champions Tour will continue to combine extremely competitive golf for champions of the game age 50 and older with a fan-friendly platform that promotes "inside the ropes" and game-improvement for its fans. The Nationwide Tour grows as a virtual extension of the PGA TOUR. Through 2003, 137 PGA TOUR tournaments have been won by former Nationwide Tour players.

Overview

Formerly the Senior PGA Tour, the Champions Tour is a tax-exempt membership organization of professional golfers age 50 and older. Since its inception in 1980 with just four sanctioned events and purses totaling $475,000, the Champions Tour has 30 official Charles Schwab Cup events offering more than $52.5 million in official prize money in 2004 and its highest average purse ever of $1.75 million. The Tour has an additional lineup of four Challenge/unofficial money events that are played in January, November and December. The Champions Tour operates under the umbrella of the PGA TOUR, which includes the PGA TOUR, Champions Tour and Nationwide Tour. The Champions Tour's primary purpose is as a component of the PGA TOUR is to provide significant competitive and earnings opportunities for players age 50 and older; to protect the integrity of the game; and to help grow the reach of the game in the U.S. and around the world. In addition to providing competitive opportunities for its membership, Champions Tour events also generate significant sums of money for charity. The three Tours of the PGA TOUR and their tournaments have generated more than $800 million for charity since the first recorded donation was made in 1938. More than $70 million was raised in 2003.

Players receive points for top-10 finishes and ties based on each week's money distribution, with $1,000 earned being the equivalent of one Charles Schwab Cup point, with triple points awarded at the five major championships and the season-ending Charles Schwab Cup Championship. The program offers $2.1 million in annuity payouts to its five leading performers. Tom Watson won the 2003 Cup and its $1-million payout, which he donated to ALS research and patient care in support of his longtime caddie and friend, Bruce Edwards and former PGA TOUR member Jeff Julian, both of whom are suffering from the disease, as well as other charities.

Charles Schwab Cup

Tom Watson accomplished many things in 2004, both on and off the golf course. Perhaps his greatest achievement was winning the Charles Schwab Cup in late October and announcing plans to donate the $1-million first prize to ALS research and patient care in support of his longtime caddie and friend Bruce Edwards.

Respect for Watson, always high among his peers, grew immeasurably throughout 2003 as fellow players watched the Kansas City native rise to the occasion week after week in competition, while fiercely supporting his friend and attacking ALS off the course.

It was a moving scene when Watson took the microphone at the closing ceremonies for the season-ending Charles Schwab Cup Championship with his wife, Hilary, and Edwards at his side.

"We're going to find a way to beat this thing and help my buddy, Bruce, and Jeff Julian and 30,000 others who are affected by this awful disease," he said. Julian is a former PGA TOUR player who also suffers from the disease.

Watson clinched the 2003 Charles Schwab Cup race with a dramatic second-place finish in the season-ending Charles Schwab Cup Championship. Watson's strong finish held off Bruce Lietzke to win the 2003 Cup by 1,370 points. Jim Thorpe vaulted from sixth to second place with his victory in Sonoma, earning him the $500,000 runner-up prize.

The Charles Schwab Cup is a season-long championship points program designed to recognize the Tour's leading player. The program rewards both top finishes and week-in/week-out consistency at all 31 official/Charles Schwab Cup events.

Points are awarded to the top-10 finishers and ties and are based on the money distribution for each tournament, with every $1,000 earned being the equivalent of one Charles Schwab Cup point. Points are tripled at the Champions Tour's five major championships and the Charles Schwab Cup Championship.

2003 Charles Schwab Cup Champion Tom Watson

Watson led the final eight weeks of the year after trailing Lietzke for six weeks in July and August. Other Charles Schwab Cup leaders during the course of the year were Dana Quigley, Gil Morgan, Hale Irwin and John Jacobs.

The top-five finishers, their points and earnings in the 2003 Charles Schwab Cup:

Name (# of events)	Points	Difference	Annuity
Tom Watson (14)	4,751		$1,000,000
Jim Thorpe (30)	3,381	1,370	$500,000
Bruce Lietzke (22)	2,867	1,884	$300,000
Tom Kite (27)	2,809	1,942	$200,000
Gil Morgan (25)	2,663	2,088	$100,000

The Orlando, FL-based network will provide coverage of all rounds of 24 Champions Tour tournaments this year, including four-round coverage of the JELD-WEN Tradition, the final major championship of the year.

The Golf Channel will produce all 24 telecasts. Tony Tortorici is the network's executive producer and vice president of production. Keith Hirshland will serve as senior producer for the telecasts.

In its first season covering the Champions Tour last year, The Golf Channel created a strong promotional platform and supported it with an invigorating spirit and commitment that transferred to the on-air product. Consistent with the Champions Tour's emphasis on taking its fans inside the ropes, both on site and at home, The Golf Channel enthusiastically embraced the Tour's television-related Fan Features, such as live on-course interviews, ShotLink graphics and The Learning Center. Collectively its efforts made for a very successful first-year relationship between the two organizations.

The Charles Schwab Cup, the Champions Tour's year-long, points-based championship, will be a focal element of The Golf Channel's telecasts. Entering its fourth year, Tom Watson is the defending champion in the chase for the $1-million Charles Schwab Cup first prize. Charles Schwab & Co., Inc. will be the umbrella sponsor and lead advertiser on Champions Tour telecasts.

With the magnitude of events The Golf Channel will be producing across the board in 2004—approximately 60—it will rotate two evenly balanced teams of hosts, on-course reporters and interviewers on Champions Tour telecasts throughout the year.

Historical Highlights of the Champions Tour

1980

January 16 — A landmark meeting laid the formal groundwork for the Champions Tour, which was known as the Senior PGA Tour from 1980 through the 2002 season. Attending that meeting were Sam Snead, Bob Goalby, Don January and the late Julius Boros, Gardner Dickinson and Dan Sikes. Sikes is named chairman of what became known as the Senior Advisory Council, and Snead was named honorary chairman. January 22 — The new Senior Tour is formally approved by the Tournament Policy Board of the PGA TOUR. The schedule calls for two sanctioned events for a total of $250,000 in prize money. June 22 — Don January wins the first official Champions Tour event, the Atlantic City International in Atlantic City, NJ, defeating Mike Souchak by two strokes. December 7 — Arnold Palmer becomes the first of only 10 players to win in his first Champions Tour start, defeating Paul Harney in a playoff for the PGA Seniors' Championship.

1983

Prize money offered for players on the 50-and-over circuit exceeds $3 million with 18 tournaments on the schedule. Don January wins six tournaments and supplants fellow Texan Miller Barber as the leading money-winner with $237,571. October 15 — Gene Littler birdies his first seven holes and goes out in eight-under 28 in the third round of the Suntree Classic in Melbourne, FL. Littler's nine-hole score stands as an all-time Champions Tour record for 15 years, until it is broken by Jay Sigel's 27 during the 1998 Bell Atlantic Classic, and Seiji Ebihara's at the 2002 Senior PGA Championship.

1984

Growth continues at a rapid rate when a slate of 24 events and total prize money well over $5 million is announced. Don January becomes the first player to go over $300,000 in single-season earnings ($328,597) en route to his second consecutive money title.

1985

With 27 events worth more than $6 million in total purses, the Champions Tour is large enough to merit its establishment as a division of the PGA TOUR and its own logo. The Champions Tour also becomes a distinct and separate operating and financial entity, with net revenue going to fund a newly created Senior Player Retirement Plan. A cable television package with ESPN allows seven events to enjoy national cable exposure, with the production costs partially funded by Mazda Motors of America. March 17 — Australian Peter Thomson, a five-time British Open winner, wins the first of a record nine tournaments at The Vintage Invitational. October 13 — On his 63rd birthday, Mike Fetchick wins the Hilton Head Seniors International. He becomes the second player to claim the first tournament he enters.

One new tournament is added to the schedule and prize money increases to $6.3 million. June 22 — Chi Chi Rodriguez triumphs at the Senior Tournament Players Championship in Cleveland, the first of his 22 Champions Tour career titles.

The Vantage brand of R.J. Reynolds Tobacco Company introduces its Vantage Cup program to the 35-event Champions Tour. The size of Champions Tour tournament fields expands to 72 players and, for the first time, the pro-am portion and tournament portion of events are separated.

1988

The Champions Tour grows to 37 events and purses eclipse the $10 million mark. Vantage sponsors the Champions Tour's first-ever statistical program. March 6 — Orville Moody closes with a 63, setting a 72-hole Champions Tour scoring record of 25-under 263 and tying Arnold Palmer's record for largest victory margin with his 11-stroke win at the Vintage Chrysler Invitational in Indian Wells, CA. September 18 — Arnold Palmer wins the last of his 10 Champions Tour career titles at the Crestar Classic near Richmond, VA, defeating Lee Elder, Larry Mowry and Jim Ferree by four strokes.

Cadillac Motor Car Division comes aboard as the umbrella sponsor for Champions Tour cable telecasts. Lee Trevino is the dominant performer. The "Merry Mex" easily snares both Rookie of the Year and Player of the Year honors after seven wins and official earnings of $1,190,518. He also earns his first Byron Nelson Trophy with a scoring average of 68.89, a record that will stand for eight years on the Champions Tour. February 4 — Lee Trevino makes up seven shots in the final nine holes to overtake Jim Dent for the Royal Caribbean Classic title on Key Biscayne, FL, his first victory on the Champions Tour. April 1 — Jack Nicklaus captures The Tradition crown in Scottsdale and becomes the fourth player to win in his Champions Tour debut. June 10 — Jack Nicklaus rips Dearborn (MI) CC apart to win the Mazda Senior TPC by six strokes over Lee Trevino. Nicklaus' 27-under 261 total sets a new standard for scoring in a 72-hole event on the Champions Tour. July 1 — Lee Trevino nips Jack Nicklaus at Ridgewood CC in New Jersey for the U.S. Senior Open title. Trevino's win makes him the fifth player to claim a U.S. Open and U.S. Senior Open crown. December 16 — Lee Trevino's runner-up performance at the season-ending New York Life Champions in Puerto Rico puts him over the seven-figure mark and makes him the first single-season millionaire in Champions Tour history.

The victory is Nicklaus' third senior major of the season. Earlier in the campaign, the Golden Bear successfully defended his Tradition title and waltzed to an easy triumph at the PGA Seniors' Championship.

Lee Trevino again was the leading money-winner on the Champions Tour despite a hand injury in mid-season. His $1,027,002 makes him the first player to surpass seven figures twice in a senior career, and five tournament wins propel the Merry Mex to a second Player of the Year honor. June 28 — Gibby Gilbert equals the Champions Tour's 54-hole scoring record of 193 in winning the Southwestern Bell Classic near Kansas City. His nine-stroke cushion equals the widest 54-hole victory margin in Champions Tour history.

July 5 — Gibby Gilbert wins for the second consecutive week, defeating J.C. Snead in a playoff at the Kroger Senior Classic near Cincinnati. His 54-hole score of 198 makes him the first player to win consecutive weeks with sub-200 totals. September 20 — One week after his Champions Tour debut, Doral Ryder Open champion Raymond Floyd outguns Mike Hill for the GTE North Classic title in Indianapolis. The victory makes Floyd the only player to win both a PGA TOUR and Champions Tour event in the same season. September 27 — Isao Aoki, the 36-hole leader at the Nationwide Championship near Atlanta, is declared the winner when the final round is rained out. He becomes the first Japanese player to win on the Champions Tour.

His $97,500 first-place check also makes him the first senior over the $4-million mark in career earnings. August 15 — Dave Stockton ties the Champions Tour mark for victory margin in a 54-hole event, winning by a whopping nine strokes at the Franklin Quest Championship.

1994

Official prize money approaches the $30-million mark, and a record six Champions Tour players find their way over the $1-million mark. Lee Trevino gets there first, earning $1 million for an unprecedented third time in his career. Dave Stockton tops the money list with $1,402,519 and becomes the first to win more than $1 million in back-to-back seasons. Jim Albus becomes the first former club professional to earn $1 million in a season. February 13 — Rocky Thompson sets a new Champions Tour record for lowest final-round score by a winner, a 10-under 61 at the GTE Suncoast Classic. March 6 — One day after Jim Colbert establishes the Champions Tour record for lowest 36-hole score, 14-under 126, Jay Sigel wins his first professional title in the greatest comeback in Champions Tour annals. ### 1999

The Champions Tour completes its 20th season with a number of significant accomplishments led by rookie Bruce Fleisher, who claims seven tournament victories and earns his first money title with a rookie record $2,515,705. Doyle wins three times, including his second senior major title at the FORD SENIOR PLAYERS Championship, and battles Bruce Fleisher down the stretch to claim the inaugural Charles Schwab Cup and the Arnold Palmer Award (money title) with $2,553,582. Ten players win more than once, the most to claim multiple titles since 1996. February 17 — Arnold Palmer becomes only the third player in PGA TOUR history to shoot his age when he cards a 1-under 71 in the fourth round of the Bob Hope Chrysler Classic. One day earlier, Fleisher eclipsed the all-time 36-hole record of 14-under 126 (Jim Colbert/1994 GTE West Classic, Hale Irwin/1997 Vantage Championship) with a two-day total of 16-under 124 at Tanglewood. ## Things to Look for in 2004

- Jay Haas (December 2003) and Peter Jacobsen (March), who finished 16th and 22nd, respectively, on the 2003 PGA TOUR money list, will be eligible to join the Champions Tour as fully-exempt players based on their all-time earnings. Haas becomes eligible at the Royal Caribbean Golf Classic (Feb. 6-8), while Jacobsen, who turns 50 on March 4, becomes eligible at the SBC Classic (March 12-14). Another player expected to begin play at the Royal Caribbean Golf Classic, the first full-field event of the year, is Jerry Pate, an eight-time winner on the PGA TOUR. Pate turned 50 on Sept. 16 but delayed his Champions Tour debut after undergoing shoulder surgery in July. Others joining in 2004 include Keith Fergus, Mike Reid and Ron Streck.
- Arnold Palmer will be competing in his 50th season as a professional in 2004. A winner of over 90 events worldwide, Palmer made his professional debut at the 1954 Miami Open and earned his first check at the 1955 Masters, where he tied for 10th and earned $696.
- The Golf Channel becomes the exclusive cable television partner of the Champions Tour and will televise 25 of 30 official events.
- Two new events were added to the Champions Tour schedule. The First Tee Open will be held at the Bayonet Golf Club and Pebble Beach Golf Links in Pebble Beach, CA, while the Champions Tour at Augusta Pines will be held at Augusta Pines Golf Club in Spring, TX, near Houston.
- Dana Quigley will begin the season with an incredible streak of consecutive starts. Quigley opens the year with 218 consecutive starts, while playing in 232 straight events for which he has been eligible. Both are Champions Tour records.
- With the addition of newcomers Mark James (England), Sam Torrance (Scotland), Mark McNulty (Zimbabwe) and Rafael Navarro (Brazil), the Champions Tour now has representatives from 13 countries. The following countries are now included: United States, Canada, Australia, Argentina, Spain, Japan, New Zealand, South Africa, Ireland, England, Scotland, Zimbabwe and Brazil.
- Tom Watson defends the Charles Schwab Cup, having earned the first prize and a $1-million tax-deferred annuity. Watson donated a significant portion of the prize to ALS research.
- Hale Irwin will be looking to add to his Champions Tour success. Irwin tied Miller Barber last year with victories in nine consecutive seasons. A win in 2004 would give him the record. Should he earn $1 million for the season, it would increase his record for consecutive $1-million seasons to nine. Two or more victories would also increase his record for multiple victories in a season to 10.
- One mark Irwin will have to wait on is the possibility of winning the same event five straight times. Since the Turtle Bay Championship moved to January 2005, Irwin will have to wait a few months to add to his record. Irwin won the event last October for a record fourth consecutive time. It also marked his fifth victory in the tournament. He won it in 1997, as well.
- George Archer could make his 1,000th career start (combined PGA TOUR/Champions Tour). He begins the year with 996 starts, playing 625 on the PGA TOUR and 371 on the Champions Tour.
- Field size will return to 78 players after one year at 81. Among the changes will be seven fully-exempt players from Q-School instead of eight and two players from Monday's open qualifying, down from four in previous years.
- This year marks the 25th consecutive year Liberty Mutual has sponsored the Legends of Golf, making the company the longest-running title sponsor of a Champions Tour event.
- Will there be a repeat winner at Bruno's Memorial Classic? Since its inception in 1992, no former winner has repeated, the longest string on the Champions Tour.
- Should Gil Morgan win in 2004, it would give him wins in nine consecutive seasons, tying him with Hale Irwin and Miller Barber for the most consecutive years with at least one victory. Morgan will also be looking to make it eight years in succession with at least $1 million in earnings.
- Hale Irwin, John Jacobs and Gil Morgan will all be seeking return trips to the Charles Schwab Cup Championship for the top 30 money winners. Irwin's streak is nine straight years, while Jacobs and Morgan have gone eight and seven consecutive years, respectively.
- Dave Stockton enters the campaign with a streak of 12 straight top-50 finishes on the money list, the best streak on the Champions Tour.
- Jay Sigel (November 2003), Graham Marsh (Jan. 14) and Bruce Summerhays (Feb. 14) all become eligible for the Georgia-Pacific Grand Champions competition (age 60 and older).
- Bruce Lietzke has increased his earnings each season since joining the Champions Tour in 2001. He earned $1,119,573 his rookie season, $1,527,676 in 2002 and $1,610,826 in 2003.
- Tom Kite seeks to lead the Champions Tour in Greens in Regulation for the fifth consecutive year. Doug Tewell shoots for his fourth consecutive Driving Accuracy title.
- The FleetBoston Classic will be held at the Nashawtuc County Club for the 21st year, the longest stretch at the same site on the Champions Tour.

About the Commissioner

Timothy W. Finchem
Commissioner

Timothy W. Finchem, 56, is the third Commissioner of the PGA TOUR. Finchem succeeded Deane R. Beman as Commissioner on June 1, 1994. Beman had served for 20 years, replacing the late Joseph C. Dey, who had been the TOUR's Commissioner in its first five years, 1969-74.

Finchem, Deputy Commissioner and Chief Operating Officer of the TOUR under Beman since 1989, joined the TOUR staff as Vice President of Business Affairs in 1987.

As Commissioner, Finchem has greatly expanded the earnings opportunities for PGA TOUR players domestically and internationally. He also has taken leadership roles in the formation of the International Federation of PGA Tours and the World Golf Foundation, Inc.

His personal dedication to the success of the World Golf Foundation's First Tee initiative has helped that program achieve its initial objectives in developing facilities that will have an impact on the game for years to come.

"Our primary purpose as a membership organization is to create outstanding playing and earnings opportunities for our players," Finchem says,

"and we are proud of what our tournaments do for charity (more than $700 million raised) and the active role we have been able to take as an organization in growing the game for future generations."

Born in Ottawa, IL, on April 19, 1947, Finchem graduated from Princess Anne High School in Virginia Beach, VA. He attended the University of Richmond on a debate scholarship, receiving his Bachelor of Arts degree in 1969. He graduated from the University of Virginia Law School in 1973.

After practicing law in Virginia Beach for three years, Finchem served in the White House as Deputy Advisor to the President in the Office of Economic Affairs in 1978 and 1979. In the early 1980s, Finchem co-founded the National Marketing and Strategies Group in Washington, D.C.

Finchem is recipient of the Golf Course Superintendents Association of America's Old Tom Morris Award for 2001 and the PGA of America's Distinguished Service Award for 2002.

Married to the former Holly Bachand, Finchem is a father of four. The Finchams live in Ponte Vedra Beach, FL.

After finishing 11th on the 2002 money list, Gil Morgan returned to form last year by finishing third on the money list in a season that saw him win his 22nd Champions Tour title.

2004 Champions Tour Eligibility Requirements

In order to be eligible for an official Champions Tour event, a player must be at least 50 years of age prior to his first tournament obligation. The field size at the majority of Champions Tour events in 2004 will return to 78 players (vs. 81 in 2003) and eligibility requirements modified as follows for standard 78-player fields:

Standard Field Size: 78 Players

- 1. 30 players – Available from Prior-Year Money List, floor of 50
- 2. 30 players – Available from All-Time Money List (not exempt in No.1), floor of net 70
- 3. 4 players – PGA TOUR Career Victory Category, ages 50 and 51 (not exempt in No. 1 or No. 2)
- 4. 7 players – Available from National Qualifying tournament (Replaced by Reorder Category in August; see below)
- 5. 5 players – Invited by the Tournament
  - Two spots restricted: players with one PGA TOUR or Champions Tour win and Veteran Member status
  - Three spots unrestricted
- 6. 2 players – Open Qualifying
  - Tournament winners not already in the field will reduce restricted and unrestricted Sponsor Exemptions in alternating order.
  - Special Medical is positioned as No. 8 Q-School.
  - National Qualifying Tournament No. 8 through net No. 15 access after categories 1 and 2 “floor out.”
  - Past Champions access when National Qualifying Tournament “floors out.”

Reorder Category

All Champions Tour members 75th or better on the Current Year Official Champions Tour Money List, along with the top 15 (net) finishers of the Champions Tour National Qualifying Tournament and members remaining eligible via the Special Medical Extension Category, shall be ranked upon each member's position on the current year Official Champions Tour Money List and replace the National Qualifying Tournament Category for the last eight full-field events of each season. The top seven available and not-otherwise-exempt players on the Reorder Category list, in order of their position on said List, shall be eligible to compete in open, full-field tournaments.

Alternates

After commitment deadline, withdrawals will be replaced by the first available player on the Prior-Year and All-Time Money Lists, in alternating order. If all available players from both lists are in the field (“floor out”), additional players from the standard priority order fill the field (i.e., Special Medical, second eight National Qualifying Tournament and Past Champions).

GEORGIA-PACIFIC GRAND CHAMPIONS ELIGIBILITY

The Georgia-Pacific Grand Champions competition consists of players within the starting field who are 60 years of age and older. The competition takes place over the first 36 holes of a 54-hole event or the first 54 holes of a 72-hole tournament. Georgia-Pacific Grand Champions' earnings are unofficial, but the participants earn official money for their position of finish in the overall tournament. The Georgia-Pacific Grand Champions Championship, held in conjunction with the season-ending Charles Schwab Cup Championship, is the culminating event of the competition.

Saw the lead shrink to two strokes over Canizares after 14 holes but turned things around and cruised to his first win since winning in Canada in 1999. Used a second-round, career-best 9-under 63 to set a new tournament mark of 20-under-par 196 and was one of three wire-to-wire winners in 2003. . . Was the 54-hole leader at the JELD-WEN Tradition and eventually T2 at The Reserve, one stroke back of Tom Watson, after a final-round 72. Moved into contention at Brickyard Crossing on Saturday with a sizzling 8-under 64, his Champions Tour career-low at the time, but never had the opportunity to challenge Morgan as bad weather washed out the final round. . . Inducted into the South Dakota Sports Hall of Fame during the season. 1999: Captured his first Champions Tour event in just his seventh start, defeating Hale Irwin in a playoff at the AT&T Canada Senior Open Championship. Made par on the second extra hole for the win after holing a clutch 30-foot birdie putt on the 18th green in regulation to force the overtime session. Canadian triumph at Richelieu Valley near Montreal earned him an immediate full exemption for a calendar year. Had successfully open-qualified to get into the tournament and became just the seventh Monday qualifier in history to win a Champions Tour event and the first since Dana Quigley at the 1997 Northville Long Island Classic. . . Victory also made him the 10th player in Champions Tour history to win after turning 60. Teamed with Andy North to successfully defend their Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf title, the fifth time in tournament history a team had gone back to back. Had nice showing at the Columbus Southern Open, posting three straight rounds in the 60s and a T26 in Georgia... Joined the ranks of the Georgia-Pacific Grand Champions in September and earned $31,416 in four starts.

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 2002: Flirted with a return to the top 31 for the first time since the 1999 season but missed a chance to compete in the season-ending event in Oklahoma City when he ended up 32nd on the final money list... Captured the Emerald Coast Classic when the final round of the event was canceled by a heavy thunderstorm. Victory was his first on the Champions Tour since the 1999 Novell Utah Showdown and triumph near Pensacola at age 58 made him the Champions Tour's oldest champion since Jim Colbert won the 2001 SBC Senior Classic at 60 years, 2 days. Made the first hole-in-one of his Champions Tour career at The Moors (third in tournament history), holing a 7-iron shot from 190 yards on the eighth hole in the opening round... Made a late run at the NFL Golf Classic, but a bogey at Upper Montclair's par-3 17th hole in the final round killed his chances and he finished T2, two strokes back of James Mason... Also T3 at the FleetBoston Classic, one stroke out of a playoff with John Mahaffey and Bob Gilder and was only player in the field to post three consecutive scores in the 60s at Nashawtuc... Only other top-10 finish came at the SBC Senior Classic when he was T8. 2001: Played over 30 events for eighth straight year, with best finish a solo fifth at the TD Waterhouse Championship, one of four top-10 efforts. 2000: Three top-10s, with two of those coming on successive weeks and none after late June... Made his 1,000th career start (PGA/Champions Tour combined) at the BellSouth Senior Classic at Opryland (T37)... Was inducted into the Waco High School Sports Hall of Fame late in the year. 1999: In the span of three weeks in July, became a multiple winner in the same season for the first time in his professional career. First won his biggest tournament ever, claiming the U.S. Senior Open at Des Moines G&CC. Outdueled Ed Dougherty over the final nine holes and eventually triumphed by three strokes. His final-round 68 was the lowest in the field that particular Sunday... Rebounded from a double bogey down the stretch to win the Novell Utah Showdown title in a playoff over Dana Quigley. Had his two best rounds of the season on consecutive days at Park Meadows and his 15-under-par 129 total for the first 36 holes was a '99 best on the circuit. Utah triumph also came at 55 years, 10 months, 29 days, making him the oldest champion on the circuit in 1999... Ended the campaign with his finest financial season ever. 1997: Had only one top-10 finish in the first half of the season, but reeled off 10 in the second half after finding a new driver... Starting at the First of America Classic, was among the top 10 in eight of his last 11 tournaments... Runner-up at the Vantage Championship, when he equaled Hale Irwin's Tanglewood Park course record at the time and his career-low round of 62 on the last day of the tournament... Won his third Champions Tour title the next week at The Transamerica and became the circuit's 20th different winner that year... Had bogeys on three of his first four holes Sunday, but eventually overcame a three-stroke deficit to win by four at Silverado. 1996: Outdueled local favorite Jim Colbert to win the VFW Senior Championship by two strokes. 1995: Did not win an event, but recorded 11 top-10 finishes, including a playoff loss to Bruce Devlin at the rain-shortened FHP Health Care Classic in Ojai, CA. 1994: Selected by his peers as the Comeback Player of the Year after claiming his first win in 13 years at the Quicksilver

Classic... Victory came in the midst of a 12-week run in which he missed the top 20 only once... Almost became a multiple champion, but fell to Bob Murphy in a five-hole playoff at the Raley's Senior Gold Rush. 1993: Made the first of seven 1993 appearances, starting at the GTE North Classic after turning 50 in early September.

2003 SEASON: Was among the top three in five events and ranked fourth in Sub-Par Rounds with 58, 40 of them in the 60s... After ranking among the top three money-winners for four straight years, slipped to 10th in 2003 official earnings... Extended to five consecutive, his streak of years with at least one Champions Tour victory when he claimed his second Verizon Classic in the last four years early in the campaign. Outdueled Hale Irwin down the stretch at the TPC of Tampa Bay. Was the beneficiary of a two-stroke swing at the 17th hole on Sunday and went on to record his 16th career title on the circuit... Also challenged Tom Jenkins down the stretch at the Bruno's Memorial Classic, but finished solo second after making bogey on two of the last three holes... Made a spirited bid for another victory at the Columbus Southern Open, but his closing-round, 8-under-par 62 fell two strokes shy of eventual winner Morris Hatafsky... Opened with a 7-under-par 64 at the FleetBoston Classic in August and hung in contention for the duration before falling by three strokes to Allen Doyle and finishing T2 along with Bob Gilder... Also T2 at the Allianz Championship despite shooting a 7-under 64 in the second round, the low 18-hole score in the event... The week prior, set a tournament mark in the opening round of the Long Island Classic when he shot an 8-under-par 62 (later broken by Jim Thorpe's second-round 60), but slipped to T16 after rounds of 72-71 on the weekend... Finished the year with eight straight par/better rounds and started his last four events with a round in the 60s.

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 2002: Finished third on the money list and recorded 20 top-10 finishes with 46 rounds in the 60s, both second to Hale Irwin (22/50)... Claimed his first title in more than 12 months when he had a record-setting performance at the RJR Championship. Was a five-stroke victor over Hale Irwin, and in the process, set Champions Tour 36- and 54-hole scoring records. His 54-hole total of 191 (19-under-par) broke the previous low by two strokes (set in 1989 by Bob Charles and matched by Charles Coody in 1991 and Gibby Gilbert in 1992) and his 36-hole score broke the old mark by two strokes, as well (set by Jim Colbert in 1994 and matched by Hale Irwin in 1997). Opened the tournament by tying the Champions Tour record with a 60 (10-under-par) that included pars on the last four holes. Had 10 birdies and 23 putts on the par-70 Tanglewood course. Win made him the last of three wire-to-wire winners during the year (Tom Kite, MasterCard Championship, and Bob Gilder, FleetBoston Classic). 2001: Earned over $2 million for the third straight year and went down to the wire with Allen Doyle for the top spot in the first Charles Schwab Cup competition and the money list... Among his three victories was his first major championship on the Champions Tour at the U.S. Senior Open... Joined Doyle as the only players to finish in the top 10 in all four senior major championships... Of his 94 rounds, 48 were in the 60s, and he had 70 sub-par rounds... Claimed his biggest career title at the U.S. Senior Open at Salem CC near Boston, one year after losing the 54-hole lead at Saucon Valley and finishing second to Hale Irwin. Was among four players four strokes back with one round to play, but carded a steady 68 in the final round to edge Gil Morgan and Isao Aoki by one stroke... Earlier in the year, overcame a two-stroke deficit entering the final round of the Las Vegas Senior Classic to win by three strokes... Became just the sixth player in Champions Tour history to win the same event three straight times when he triumphed at The Home Depot Invitational with a tournament-record score of 15-under 201. Was the only player in the field to post three rounds in the 60s and was three strokes better than John Bland. 2000: Successfully defended three titles during the year... Edged Vicente Fernandez by two points at the Royal Caribbean Classic, thanks to five birdies on Sunday in the Modified Stableford format event... Bested Hubert Green in a playoff at The Home Depot Invitational, making birdie on the third extra hole of overtime. Went wire-to-wire for the second year in a row to claim the Lightpath Long Island Classic, defeating Dana Quigley by two strokes... Had outdistanced Quigley by four strokes earlier in the year at the GTE Classic in Tampa and earned February Player of the Month honors. GTE Classic win gave him nine victories in his first 36 senior career starts and the nine wins came in a period of one year, 15 days, the fastest anyone has reached that mark in Champions Tour history... Suffered his most disappointing defeat of the season at the U.S. Senior Open at Saucon Valley. Fired a course-record, 7-under 64 on the first day and was also the 36- and 54-hole leader before being overtaken by Hale Irwin on Sunday. 1999: Was the dominant player on the Champions Tour and collected all top post-season honors including Player of the Year, Rookie of the Year and the Byron Nelson Trophy for lowest scoring average (69.19)... Was the first rookie since Lee Trevino in 1990 to win the Arnold Palmer Award as the leading money-winner with $2,515,705 ($78,894/start), the second highest single-season total in the history of the circuit at the time... Also joined Trevino (1990), Bruce Crampton (1986) and Miller Barber (1981) as the only players to win seven official events in their first year on the Champions Tour... Had 56 rounds in the 60s, a record at the time, and was under par in 75 of his 96 rounds played (78.1 percent)... Became the eighth player in Champions Tour history to win his debut when he went wire-to-wire in claiming the Royal Caribbean Classic at Key Biscayne... Won the American Express Invitational in Sarasota by three strokes over Larry Nelson the very next week to become the first player ever to claim his first two starts on the circuit... Added a third title in late April at The Home Depot Invitational, edging Terry Dill and Jim Holtgrieve by a stroke in Charlotte... Used a 9-under-par 63 on Saturday, his low round of the year, to nip Al Geiberger by a shot for the BellSouth Senior Classic at Opryland title in Nashville... Went wire-to-wire in early August to clip Allen Doyle by two strokes at the Lightpath Long Island Classic... Outdueled Doyle again late in the season at The Transamerica, then clinched the money title two weeks later by edging Doyle again at the EMC Kaanapali Classic. 1998: Earned a full exemption for the 1999 season after finishing second at the Champions Tour National Qualifying Tournament at Grenelefe... Fired four consecutive sub-par rounds and ended up three strokes back of Allen Doyle.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: Played 408 events on the PGA TOUR, starting as an amateur in 1969 through the 1998 season, with earnings of nearly $1.7 million... Made 280 cuts in his career and probably enjoyed his greatest success in a three-year span in the early 1990s... Won his only PGA TOUR title in 1991 when he went seven extra holes to defeat Ian Baker-Finch, who would go on to win the British Open the next week. Rolled in 50-foot birdie putt on seventh playoff hole to defeat Baker-Finch... Had his best year in 1992 when he won $236,516 and finished 68th on the money list... Posted the first of four runner-up finishes when he was second at the 1974 Quad Cities Classic. Other second-place finishes were at the 1978 Magnolia Classic, the 1981 USF&G New Orleans Open and the 1993 New England Classic... Co-winner of the 1991 Hilton Bounceback Award... Joined the PGA TOUR on a full-time basis in 1972 after a much-heralded amateur career... Winner of the 1968 U.S. Amateur at Scioto CC in Columbus, OH... That victory earned him the honor of playing the first round of the 1969 Masters with Arnold Palmer, where he bested The King, 69-73... Won the 1989 PGA Club Pro Championship and was a member of the victorious U.S. team in the 1990 PGA Cup matches... Member of the 1969 Walker Cup team... Won a national junior college title... Won a gold medal in golf at the 1969 World Maccabiah Games in Israel and coached the team that represented the U.S. there in 1989... Has had two career holes-in-one in competition.

PERSONAL: Worked as a club professional in the mid-to-late 1980s, including a stint at Williams Island CC in North Miami Beach... Lists Arnold Palmer and President George W. Bush as his heroes... Favorite golf course is Muirfield Village... Got started in golf at age 7 by working as a caddy with his two brothers... Says the biggest influence in his career was Henry Atkinson, an assistant pro in Wilmington, NC, and the person who helped teach him the golf swing and how to play the game... His favorite meal is his wife's fried chicken, with mashed potatoes on the side.

BEST 2003 CHAMPIONS TOUR FINISH: T9—Long Island Classic.

2003 SEASON: Lone top-10 finish came in August when his closing-round 5-under-par 65 helped him to a T9 at the Long Island Classic... Ended the year with a nice showing at the Georgia-Pacific Grand Champions Championship where he was T6 in the 60-and-over event... Three-straight sub-par rounds at the Music City Championship helped him to a T22 finish... Made the biggest move of the day on Sunday at the Bruno's Memorial Classic. Fired a final-round 68 and jumped 24 spots into a T32... Was 11th on the final Georgia-Pacific Grand Champions money list... Underwent hip and lower back surgery in the offseason.

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 2002: Capped a productive year in the Georgia-Pacific Grand Champions competition when he claimed the title at the season-ending Georgia-Pacific event in Oklahoma City where he defeated Dave Stockton and Mike Hill by one stroke. The win was worth $150,000 and vaulted him to a second place on the final money list with $309,141. Set up his win when he made a clutch birdie on the 17th hole on the final day of the 54-hole event... Best overall finish of the year was a T8 at the SBC Senior Classic near Los Angeles in March where he also defeated George Archer by one stroke to win his first Georgia-Pacific Grand Champions title of his career. The T8 was his first top-10 finish since the 1999 BankBoston Classic (10th). 2001: Joined the ranks of the Georgia-Pacific Grand Champions at the start of the year... Contended for the Georgia-Pacific title at the rain-shortened Kroger Senior Classic, but lost by one stroke to Jim Colbert. 2000: Missed almost three months of the summer season when he was operated on for bone spurs at the end of his collar bone and right rotator cuff. Did not play any events from mid-June until mid-September. 1998: Best outing came in his initial start of the year at the MasterCard Championship, when he finished T2 with Hale Irwin behind Gil Morgan. 1997: Played some of his best golf early in the season despite a hip injury... Earned his sixth Champions Tour title at the year's first full-field event, a four-stroke win over David Graham at the Royal Caribbean Classic. 1996: Captured first title in three years at the inaugural Boone Valley Classic... Seemingly out of contention on the final day after a quadruple bogey on the second hole, he trailed by as many as six strokes on the front nine. Battled his way back with six birdies over the final 14 holes, including one at the 18th that forced a playoff with Hale Irwin. Won with a par on the first playoff hole and earned the largest check of his professional career: $180,000. 1993: Won the Las Vegas Senior Classic where he used a second-round 63, his lowest round of the year, to hold off Mike Hill for the one-stroke win. 1992: Posted back-to-back victories at the Southwestern Bell Classic and Kroger Senior Classic... Became the first of only two Champions Tour players to win back-to-back events with sub-200 scores during that two-week span... Never looked back after firing an 8-under-par 62 in the opening round of the Southwestern Bell event... In Kansas City, equaled a then-Champions Tour numerical record with a 17-under-par 193 total, as well as tying the largest 54-hole victory margin ever on the Champions Tour (nine strokes)... One week later, defeated J.C. Snead on the second hole of a playoff to win the Kroger event after both had posted 15-under 198 scores... Matched his PGA TOUR career victory total with a late-summer triumph at the First of America Classic.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: Collected more than $1 million in official earnings on the PGA TOUR from 1968-1985 and was exempt for 14 of those 17 years... First of his three PGA TOUR wins came at the 1970 Houston Champions International, where he defeated Bruce Crampton in a playoff... Best year was 1980, when he earned more than $100,000 for the only time in his TOUR career... A runner-up, with Jack Newton, to Seve Ballesteros in the 1980 Masters... Along with several others, owns the course record at the fabled Pinehurst No. 2 Course, where he shot 62 during the 1973 World Open. At the time, the score shattered the old record by three strokes... Has made nine aces in competition.

PERSONAL: Lists Arnold Palmer as his hero... Enjoys spending time with his family... Got started in golf at age 13 by his father... Lists Los Angeles CC as his favorite golf course... Former member of Champions Tour Division Board... Son Gibby III has played on the Nationwide Tour.

BEST 2003 CHAMPIONS TOUR FINISHES: 1—Emerald Coast Classic; 2—Long Island Classic, SBC Championship, FleetBoston Classic; 3—Kinko's Classic of Austin; T4—Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf.

2003 SEASON: Enjoyed another successful season, finishing 12th on the final money list with $1,278,247. Among his nine top-10 finishes were a win, three seconds and a third. Played some of his best golf during a one-month stretch starting in late April with his win at the Emerald Coast Classic. His 54-hole score of 17-under 193 shattered the tournament record by three strokes, and it was also the year's lowest 54-hole winning score on the Champions Tour. Closing-round 63 was best finish by a winner in 2003. The win was also the seventh of his career on the Champions Tour. Victory in Pensacola made him the ninth different champion in the nine-year history of the event. Used a second-round 64 to vault himself into a tie with Tom Watson after 36 holes and then cruised easily to the title after shooting a 7-under 63 on Easter Sunday. Made 23 birdies over 54 holes, the most by any player in the field, and birdied both par-5s at The Moors all three days. The following week he was T4 at the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf and then followed with a T6 at the Bruno's Memorial Classic and a solo third place at Kinko's Classic of Austin. His finish in Austin, one stroke shy of the Hale Irwin-Tom Watson playoff, was the first of two good efforts in Texas. Was a runner-up for a third consecutive year at the SBC Championship in San Antonio in October, losing to Craig Stadler by four strokes. Champions Tour's April Player of the Month. Came close to defending his title at the FleetBoston Classic in August after rounds of 68-65-68, but fell three strokes shy, finishing T2 with Bruce Fleisher behind Allen Doyle. Went head-to-head with Jim Thorpe at the Long Island Classic two weeks later but lost by one stroke. Had an opportunity to birdie the final hole and set up a potential playoff with Thorpe, but missed a six-foot birdie attempt on the final hole to finish second. Was tied for second place one stroke behind Larry Nelson at the Greater Hickory Classic at Rock Barn before shooting a final-round 2-over-par 74 to slide to a T7. Was third in Eagles (12) and fourth in Birdies (363). During one stretch in the spring, posted seven straight rounds in the 60s and 15 of his 16 rounds were below par.

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 2002: Had his most-productive season as a professional, with four wins and earnings totaling $2,367,637. Was the Champions Tour's Player of the Month for July and September after recording a pair of victories in consecutive weeks during each month. Tied Hale Irwin in sub-par rounds with 67 and was third in top-10 finishes. In July, became the first player since Jim Thorpe in 2001 to claim back-to-back events and the first professional since Lee Elder (1985) to win consecutive tournaments on the Champions Tour in playoffs. Defeated John Mahaffey with a birdie-3 on the third extra hole to win the FleetBoston Classic at Nashawtuc. Became the first wire-to-wire winner in the 22-year history of the event and just the second player ever to win both a PGA TOUR (1982 Bank of Boston Classic) and Champions Tour event in the Boston area (Arnold Palmer, the other). Fell into playoff after making bogey on the final hole, ending a run of 64 straight holes without a bogey. Defeated Hale Irwin a week earlier with a par on the first hole of a playoff to win the SBC Senior Open in Chicago. Trained Irwin by one stroke with two holes to play in regulation, but made a crucial 15-foot birdie putt on the 16th hole to send the tournament to a playoff. Moved into the lead on Saturday with a course-record 63 on the Port Course at Harborside International. In September, rallied from two strokes down with eight holes to play to win the Allianz Championship. Dueled John Bland down the stretch and took the lead for good when Bland made bogey on the 17th hole at Glen Oaks. Victory in Des Moines was his third of the season, a first for him since claiming three PGA TOUR events in 1982. Added a fourth victory, and his third in a playoff, when he bested Tom Jenkins with a birdie-3 on the second extra hole to win the Kroger Senior Classic. Had just one bogey during the event at the TPC at River's Bend (No. 3, second round). Helped his cause by posting the first hole-in-one of his Champions Tour career on Friday with an 8-iron on the 157-yard 12th hole. Also finished second along with Fuzzy Zoeller at the Stiebel Classic in Silicon Valley, one stroke behind Dana Quigley and was also solo second to Quigley at the SBC Championship in San Antonio. Became the second player to go over the $2-million mark after pocketing $50,700 for a T5 at the Napa Valley Championship. Among his three third-place finishes was a solo third at the season-ending SENIOR TOUR Championship at Gaillardia, where he won $213,000. His eight consecutive rounds in the 60s was the best streak on the Champions Tour in 2002. Led all players with 399 birdies. 2001: Was named Rookie of the Year, thanks to a pair of victories and 11 other top-10 finishes. Earnings of over $1.6 million were more than five times greater than his best year on the PGA TOUR (1982: $308,648). Started and ended the season on a positive note. Closed with a 4-under 67 at the TPC of Tampa Bay to win the Verizon Classic by three strokes over four players. Only needed 75 total putts over three days for his Verizon title, his first win on TOUR in 18 years and 18 days (1983 Phoenix Open). Became a multiple champion for the first time since 1982 when he closed the year with a victory at the SENIOR TOUR Championship at Gaillardia. Was the first-round leader in Oklahoma City and stayed close to the lead over the next two days. Eventually edged Doug Tewell by a stroke in windy conditions despite carding a 1-over 73, the highest finishing score by a winner since the 1999 Lightpath Long Island Classic. Almost won the week prior at the SBC Championship. Was one stroke off the lead after 36 holes and eventually T2, falling two strokes short of Larry Nelson. 2000: Cruised to medalist honors at the 2000 Champions Tour National Qualifying Tournament despite playing all four days with a sprained left ankle and kidney stones. His 72-hole total of 19-under 269 shattered the Q-school scoring record and his seven-stroke margin of victory over Bill Holstead and Terry Mauney at Eagle Pines GC was the second-largest winning margin ever in a National Qualifying final.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: Joined the PGA TOUR in 1976 after successfully earning his first player's card at the Qualifying School in the Fall of 1975 on his third try. Made 646 starts on the PGA TOUR and 42 more on the Nationwide Tour before embarking on his Champions Tour career. Played the Nationwide Tour on a full-time basis in 1997. First of six career victories on the PGA TOUR came in the 1976 Phoenix Open, where he overtook Roger Maltbie to win by two strokes. Victory came in his second start on the circuit (missed cut at Tucson the week before). Last official win also came in Phoenix again in 1983, this time in a playoff with Johnny Miller, Rex Caldwell and Mark O'Meara. Had his best year on the PGA TOUR in 1982 when he won three times: Byron Nelson Classic, Manufacturers Hanover-Westchester Classic, Bank of Boston Classic. His four-round score of 22-under 266 at the Nelson was the lowest in the tournament's 16 years at Preston Trail GC. Posted a 19-under-par 261 score to win at Westchester. Highlight of that performance was a third-round double eagle on 509-yard 18th hole. Fairway marker commemorates the feat and marks the exact spot where he hit 3-wood. Was also a playoff winner over Jack Newton and Bob Charles in the 1974 New Zealand Open. Defeated John Mahaffey by two strokes in the 1988 Isuzu Kapalua International. Claimed three titles in Japan: 1982 Bridgestone International, 1988 Acom Team title (with Doug Tewell), 1990 Acom P.T. Was a member of the American team in the 1982 USA vs. Japan Team Matches and the 1983 Ryder Cup. Has two career holes-in-one.

PERSONAL: A collegiate teammate of Tom Purtzer, Howard Twitty and Morris Hatalsky at Arizona State. Joined the team as a walk-on and eventually won the Western Athletic Conference individual title in 1973 and was an honorable mention All-America. Enjoys racing cars and raced seriously from 1985-92 in some Trans-Am races. Enjoys spy moves. Favorite golf course is Harbour Town GL in South Carolina. Says the best shot of his career was his double eagle in the third round on the 18th hole at Westchester in 1982.

2003 SEASON: Dropped 15 spots on the Champions Tour money list from 19th in 2002 to 34th... Had three top-10 finishes, including a season-best T4 in the season-opening MasterCard Championship in Hawaii thanks to three straight rounds in the 60s... Next top-10 did not come until four months later when he posted back-to-back top-10 finishes at the Columbus Southern Open (T10) and the Music City Championship (T8). Helped his cause in both events by shooting a closing-round 65... Put together a nice two-month stretch beginning in late June at the Farmers Charity Classic. Was T4 after two rounds at the Greater Hickory Classic at Rock Barn but closed with a 75 on Sunday to finish T12.

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 2002: Along with Isao Aoki (The Instinet Classic), was the only other international player to win an event during the year... Broke through for his first victory at the FORD SENIOR PLAYERS Championship, where he was a one-stroke victor over Jim Thorpe, Mike McCullough and Hubert Green. His birdie on the 17th hole proved to be the difference and earned him a career-best $375,000 with the win. Also became the 13th player to win his first Champions Tour title in a major championship and the fourth of five to earn his first Champions Tour victory in that tournament (Chi Chi Rodriguez, Jim Albus, Dave Stockton and Craig Stadler were the others)... Was among the leaders with nine holes to play at the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf and eventually T3 at the King & Bear, at the time, his top outing in almost a year since finishing second to Hale Irwin at the 2001 Bruno's Memorial Classic. 2001: Backed up a fine rookie season with another solid year... Played his best golf early, with five of his six top-10 finishes coming in his first 12 starts... Shot three straight sub-70 rounds at the Bruno's Memorial Classic, including a 7-under 65 on Saturday, his low score of the campaign. His 17-under 199 total at Greystone G&CC still left him in second place four strokes back of Hale Irwin. 2000: Came on late in the year to earn a spot among the top-31 money-winners... Earned over 40 percent ($318,140) of his $717,058 in his last six appearances of the year. Was not out of the top-12 in any of those final six events and put together three straight top-10s during the fall west coast swing to earn a trip to the season-ending IR SENIOR TOUR Championship. Vaulted from 33rd to 29th place on the money list with a third-place finish and top paycheck of the season, $100,800, at the final full-field event of the year, the SBC Senior Classic. Performance at Wilshire CC came during a run of 10 straight sub-70 scores, tying a season-best streak by Jim Thorpe earlier in October. 1999: Primarily played on the PGA European Seniors Tour and the Japan PGA Tour... Finished 40th on the European Seniors Order of Merit and 47th on the Japan PGA Tour Order of Merit... Best finish in Europe was a T5 at the Senior British Open at Royal Portrush in Northern Ireland... Toshiba Senior Classic; T6—Bruno's Memorial Classic; T10—Bayer Advantage Celebrity Pro-Am.

2003 SEASON: Finished among the top 30 on the money list for the eighth straight season... Was among the top 10 in only four events, the fewest he's ever had in a full season on the Champions Tour, yet claimed the biggest prize of his career in early June near Philadelphia. Pulled away from Bobby Wadkins with birdies on the 15th and 16th holes to win the Senior PGA Championship at Aronimink GC by two strokes. Three of his four rounds were in the 60s, including a closing-round 68. In the process became the oldest winner of that event (58) since Pete Cooper, at age 61, in 1976. His $360,000 first-place check was his largest ever and was almost half of his total earnings on the season... Posted first top-10 finish in late March when he T3 at the Toshiba Senior Classic and then T6 at Bruno's Memorial Classic slightly more than a month later... Suffered left ankle sprain playing a practice round at PGA Championship and missed one start in August.

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 2002: Had a career-best year from an earnings standpoint, with $1,224,737... Made a crucial par save on the final hole to win the rain-shortened Royal Caribbean Classic, his first victory since the 2000 Bruno's Memorial Classic. Edged Isao Aoki, Tom Watson and Bruce Fleisher by a stroke at Crandon Park with an 11-under 133 total... Started the season by finishing second to Tom Kite at the MasterCard Championship. Final-round 68 at Hualalai included the first double eagle of his career on the par-5, 566-yard 10th hole (driver/8-iron, 189 yards)... Third-round leader at The Countrywide Tradition following a 66 and then finished tied with Jim Thorpe after 72 holes at Superstition Mountain. Lost to Thorpe in the year's first major championship when, on the first extra playoff hole, his four-foot birdie attempt lipped out. 2001: Best effort came late in the year in Hawaii when he duelled Hale Irwin on the back nine of the Turtle Bay Championship before losing by three strokes. 2000: Eclipsed the $1-million mark for the first time in his professional career... Defeated Gil Morgan in overtime at the Bruno's Memorial Classic. Came from six strokes back on Sunday with a final-round 64 at Greystone G&CC and then defeated Morgan with a par on the first playoff hole. Come-from-behind margin was the biggest by a Champions Tour player since Bruce Summerhays rallied from six shots back at the 1997 Saint Lukes Classic near Kansas City... Was the first player to post four straight rounds in the 60s at the IR SENIOR TOUR Championship and eventually finished second to Tom Watson by a stroke at the TPC of Myrtle Beach... Matched his career-low round with a 9-under 63 on Sunday at the Gold Rush Classic and finished third... Aced the eighth hole in the third round of the FORD SENIOR PLAYERS Championship, his second hole-in-one on the Champions Tour. 1999: Went wire-to-wire at the beginning of the year for a three-stroke victory over Jim Colbert and Raymond Floyd at the MasterCard Championship... Was also the 18- and 36-hole leader at the Toshiba Senior Classic, but lost to good friend Gary McCord in an exciting four-way playoff at Newport Beach. First shot his career-low round, an 8-under 63, on Saturday at the EMC Kaanapali Classic. 1998: Tasted victory for the first time in his Champions Tour career when he came from three strokes back on Sunday to claim the Nationwide Championship near Atlanta. Trained Gil Morgan and Bob Eastwood by three strokes at the start of the final round, but jumped into contention with birdies on five of his first nine holes. Made a key birdie at the 17th hole down the stretch to nip Hale Irwin by a stroke for the title. 1997: Nearly posted his first Champions Tour victory at the Southwestern Bell Dominion. Held a one-stroke lead over David Graham before Graham eagled the final hole to overtake him by one stroke... Knocked on the victory door again three weeks later when he was just two off the lead after 36 holes at the Las Vegas Senior Classic before finishing T3. 1996: Was 23rd on the final money list, with best finish a solo second at the rain-shortened Brickyard Crossing Championship. 1995: Earned fully-exempt status by finishing T2 at the 1995 Champions Tour National Qualifying Tournament... Made his debut on the Champions Tour in 1995, shortly after turning 50, and Monday qualified for three events.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: From 1968 through 1980, played numerous events on the PGA TOUR, recording three second-place finishes. One of those came at the 1972 Jacksonville Open, where he lost to Tony Jacklin in a playoff... Played in Asia during much of the 1980s... Was the first American to win the Asian golf circuit Order of Merit in 1984... From 1968 through 1991, won more than 100 long drive championships around the world.

PERSONAL: Grew up on a golf course as a child as his father was director of parks and recreation for the city of Los Angeles... Was assisted in the development of his game by his brother, Tommy, a four-time winner on the PGA TOUR... His dream foursome would include his brother, Arnold Palmer and Walter Hagen, with maybe Ben Hogan thrown in to offset Hagen... Enjoys horse racing and says if he could have one job outside of golf it would be having the opportunity to call a race at a track... Enjoys Italian food... Favorite athletes are Michael Jordan and Arnold Palmer... Selects Winston Churchill and Franklin D. Roosevelt as the two people in history he would most like to meet because their decisions changed our world... Biggest thrill in golf was making the Champions Tour and winning 2003 Senior PGA Championship.

BEST 2003 CHAMPIONS TOUR FINISH: T21—Verizon Classic.

2003 SEASON: Battled a bad back for parts of the season, which forced him to miss some time during the year. Back problems caused him to withdraw after two rounds at the Constellation Energy Classic in September, and he did not play again until the last full-field event in San Antonio five weeks later. Lone top-25 finish was a T21 at the Verizon Classic in his third start of the year.

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 2002: Played his best golf during a six-week span from mid-June until late July when he had two second-place finishes. First runner-up performance came at the Greater Baltimore Classic in late June when he finished T2 at Hayfields, one stroke behind J.C. Snead. Was on the leaderboard all three rounds and had his best effort since winning in San Antonio at the 1999 Southwestern Bell Dominion. Overcame back spasms to fire final-round 65 at FleetBoston Classic, but lost in a playoff to Bob Gilder. Was troubled by back problems at various times during the year. 2001: Finished T4 in Napa after battling Allen Doyle and eventual winner Sammy Rachels to the wire. Victory in San Antonio came 14 years after he claimed the Texas Open in the same city on the PGA TOUR. Made a 30-foot birdie putt on the second playoff hole to beat Jose Maria Canizares and Bruce Fleisher. Holed a clutch 20-foot birdie putt at the 17th hole in regulation to get into the overtime session. Hit 77 percent of Greens in Regulation, the highest mark in the history of the Champions Tour at that time (since surpassed by Tom Kite's 78.0 in 2000). 1998: Debuted at the Saint Luke's Classic and T26 at the Kansas City event. Best finish was a T2 at the Utah Showdown, where he finished four strokes behind Gil Morgan.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: High point of 25-year career came at the 1978 PGA Championship at Oakmont CC, where he won a playoff over Tom Watson and Jerry Pate. Went on to claim the American Optical Classic in Sutton, MA, the following week. Earned a 10-year exemption with his one-stroke victory over Larry Mize at 1986 Tournament Players Championship (now THE PLAYERS Championship). Fired third-round 65 on Stadium Course at the TPC at Sawgrass to move into contention. Last victory came at the 1989 Federal Express St. Jude Classic, where he closed with rounds of 66-65 for a three-stroke win at TPC at Southwind. Led the PGA TOUR in Victory at 61 years, 8 months and 9 days made him the third oldest player to win a Champions Tour event behind Mike Fetchick (63 years) and Player (62 years, 9 months, 22 days). The win was also his first since the 1995 FORD SENIOR PLAYERS Championship and set a record for longest time between Champions Tour victories (6 years, 11 months, 7 days), eclipsing the old record of 6 years, 10 months and 3 days by Larry Ziegler (1991 Newport Cup-1998 Saint Lukes Classic). 2001: T2 at The Instinet Classic, two strokes behind Gil Morgan... Defeated Raymond Floyd in a playoff for the Royal Caribbean Classic title and then bested Jack Nicklaus in overtime for the FORD SENIOR PLAYERS Championship title, the biggest win of his career. 1993: Broke into the Champions Tour winner's circle when he braved the elements for a one-stroke victory at the Vantage at The Dominion in San Antonio. His 54-hole score of 2-under 214 was impressive, considering a fluke winter storm that moved through south Texas during the event.

Tied Eamonn Darcy after 54 holes as a result of a clutch 18-foot eagle putt on the 17th hole at Egypt Valley. Eventually defeated Darcy with a 15-foot birdie putt on the third playoff hole. Victory made him the 16th different winner in 2003, tying the all-time Champions Tour record for longest span without a repeat winner... Had finished in third place a month earlier at the Columbus Southern Open on the strength of a second-round 64, his lowest score of the year... Played his best golf of the campaign from late August to late September when he had four top-five performances in five starts and put together a streak of 12 straight sub-par rounds during that period... Had back-to-back runner-up efforts in consecutive weeks. First battled fellow Edmond, OK, resident Gil Morgan throughout the Kroger Classic. Got within one stroke of Morgan, but missed birdie chances at the last two holes and eventually came up two strokes shy at the TPC at River's Bend... T2 for the second straight year the following week at the Constellation Energy Classic near Baltimore. Made up three strokes on 36-hole co-leaders Larry Nelson and Jay Sigel on the final day, and briefly grabbed the lead late in the final round. Fell back after missing a birdie opportunity on No. 16 and then bogeyed the last two holes to finish two strokes shy of Nelson... Had another chance for a win the following week at the SAS Championship. Was in contention down the stretch at Prestonwood until a bogey on the final hole dropped him into an eventual T4... Also T5 at the Senior PGA Championship at Aronimink in the first major of the campaign... First top-10 effort of the season was a T6 in Savannah in late April in defense of his Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf title... Held off Bobby Wadkins by a stroke to win the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf. Again drove the ball in 41 of 42 fairways at the King & Bear course... Made the first hole-in-one of the 2002 season when he aced the 217-yard eighth hole with a 4-iron at Hualalai GC during the opening round of the MasterCard Championship. Ace was the first in MasterCard Championship history... Also finished second to Dave Eichelberger at the Emerald Coast Classic when the final round was washed out... Made first PGA TOUR start since 1999 and made his fifth consecutive cut, finishing T68 at the WORLDCOM CLASSIC-The Heritage of Golf at Harbour Town, site of his first TOUR victory in 1980... Led the Champions Tour in Driving Accuracy for the second straight year (83.6 percent). 2001: In April, closed with a Cochie course-record 10-under-par 62 at Desert Mountain, the lowest score ever shot in a major championship on the Champions Tour, and completed a wire-to-wire victory at The Countrywide Tradition. Victory at Desert Mountain GC was his second major victory on the Champions Tour. Needed just 19 putts in his final round and his 72-hole total of 23-under-par 265 was the best four-round score on the Champions Tour since Jack Nicklaus posted an all-time record of 27-under 261 at the 1990 FORD SENIOR PLAYERS Championship. The nine-stroke win was also the largest margin of victory since Hale Irwin won the 1997 PGA Seniors' Championship by 12 strokes. Victory near Phoenix was his fourth Champions Tour title, coming in his 40th career start. Did not register his fourth win on the PGA TOUR until his 541st start... BEST 2003 CHAMPIONS TOUR FINISHES: T2—Emerald Coast Classic; T7—ACE Group Classic.

2003 SEASON: Made just 25 starts last year, the fewest events he's played in a season since joining the Champions Tour. Had both of his top-10 finishes in the first third of the season. Shared the first-round lead at the Emerald Coast Classic, thanks to a Champions Tour career-low-tying round of 63. Eventually T2 in the event after posting a final-round 66 at The Moors. Credited a change to the long putter for his runner-up performance in Pensacola, his best overall effort since winning near St. Louis in May 2001. During the early Florida swing, T7 at The ACE Group Classic after a pair of 68s on the weekend.

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 2002: T5 at the BellSouth Senior Classic at Opryland on the strength of a closing 5-under 67 at Springhouse GC. 2001: Claimed his third career Champions Tour title when he bested Vicente Fernandez, 2-up, in the final of the Enterprise Rent-A-Car Match Play Championship near St. Louis. Victory was worth a career-best $300,000 and also avenged his loss to Fernandez in the finals of the unofficial 2000 Chrysler Senior Match Play Championship in Puerto Rico. Played 104 competitive holes on his way to the victory, the most of any player in the field. 2000: Collected his second Champions Tour crown when he ended almost a two-year victory drought with victory at the State Farm Senior Classic in Columbia, MD. Birdied the third playoff hole to defeat Isao Aoki at Hobbit's Glen. 1999: Recorded his two best efforts of the campaign in first third of the season. Closed with a final-round 66 at the Royal Caribbean Classic to finish T3. Shot two rounds of 70 at Desert Mountain and T3 at The Tradition after the event was shortened to 36 holes. 1998: Won the rain-shortened Coldwell Banker Burnet Classic. Birdied the second hole of a sudden-death playoff to defeat Isao Aoki for the title at Bunker Hills GC. 1997: As a rookie, played in 30 events and two of those appearances were as a Monday qualifier (Toshiba Senior Classic and Nationwide Championship). T5 at the U.S. Senior Open at Olympia Fields CC outside of Chicago.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: Played the PGA TOUR from 1971-1996 and also made 17 appearances on the Nationwide Tour from 1993-1996. Won three PGA TOUR events, with the last victory in 1989 at the Buick Open. Prevailed by one stroke over Billy Andrade, Doug Tewell and Payne Stewart at Warwick Hills in Grand Blanc. After a first-round 65, trailed by three entering the final round, but rallied with a 4-under-par 68 for a one-stroke triumph. Win ended an 11-year, nine-month drought, the third-longest stretch between victories in PGA TOUR history. Buick Open victory also helped him to a personal PGA TOUR-best $261,397, more than triple his earnings total from the previous season ($84,659). Prior to the Michigan win, previous victory came at the 1977 Pensacola Open, where he rolled in a 50-foot birdie putt on the 72nd hole to edge rookie Curtis Strange. First PGA TOUR win came in 1974 at the Jackie Gleason-Inverrary Classic, where he nipped Hale Irwin by one stroke. Set a course record at the 1981 Canadian Open, shooting a 62 (31-31) at Glen Abbey GC. Hit every green in regulation except one, but birdied that hole with a chip-in from off the green. Used the same ball for all 18 holes. The ball then was presented to the Royal Canadian Golf Association for display in its museum at Glen Abbey. Also turned in a stellar performance at the 1977 Colgate Hall of Fame at Pinehurst No. 2. Shot a nine-hole record 7-under-par 29 on the back nine of the fabled course in his native North Carolina. Highest money position on the PGA TOUR came in 1973 and 1974 when he finished 15th. Recorded one top-10 finish on the Nationwide Tour when he placed sixth at the 1996 Tallahassee Open. Has one hole-in-one in his career.

Was a standout high school basketball player who turned down scholarship opportunities to play college golf. His daughter is an attorney and his son is a biomedical engineer. Lists "The Andy Griffith Show" as his favorite TV program and basketball star Tim Duncan as his favorite athlete. Best friend on the Champions Tour is Bill Kratzert.

2003 SEASON: Had perhaps his finest season in professional golf when he was among the top three six times starting in mid-July... Appeared to be out of the Charles Schwab Cup race through the first half of the season, but eventually finished second in the Schwab Cup race behind Tom Watson when he became the Champions Tour's hottest player after mid-August... Was voted the Champions Tour Player of the Month for both August and October... Also placed second behind Watson in the final money standings with a personal-best $1,830,306... Had two victories on the Champions Tour for the third time in the last four years and was the last of only five multiple winners on the circuit in 2003... In the winner's circle for the first time in 16 months when he slipped by Bob Gilder for a one-stroke victory at the Long Island Classic with a tournament-record score of 15-under 195. Tied a Champions Tour record in the second round when he shot a 10-under-par 60 on the Red Course at Eisenhower Park. Record-setting score gave him a two-stroke cushion entering Sunday's final round and 3-under-par 67 proved to be good enough for the win. Short birdie putts on 16 and 17 clinched title... Win in Long Island came during a run of 16 consecutive sub-par rounds, a 2003 best streak of sub-par scores... Capped his year with a wire-to-wire victory at the Charles Schwab Cup Championship in Sonoma, CA, a first in the season-ending event since Jim Colbert in 1995. His 20-under-par total over 72 holes at Sonoma GC, included playing the par-5s in 13-under, was the lowest 72-hole score in relation to par on the Champions Tour in 2003 and the lowest four-round total in event history. Was locked in a duel with Tom Watson down the stretch, but holed a 67-foot eagle putt from the fringe on the par-5 16th and then made a 10-foot birdie putt on No. 17 to seal the win. Third Champions Tour win in northern California came with a $440,000 first-place check, his largest ever as a professional... In between wins, was second once and third twice in a span of six events. Followed up his Long Island performance with a T2 at the Allianz Championship. Shot three consecutive rounds in the 60s in Des Moines, but came up three strokes short of Don Pooley... T3 two weeks later at the Kroger Classic, three strokes behind Gil Morgan. Opened with a 67 and closed with the best effort of the tournament, an 8-under-par 64... Solo third in late September at the inaugural Greater Hickory Classic at Rock Barn when he rallied after being 3-over-par through his first five holes of the event... Also finished T2 earlier in the summer for the second consecutive year at the Ford Senior Players Championship, thanks to a final-round 65 at the TPC of Michigan that included a ball out of bounds.

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 2002: Won the first major championship of his career at The Tradition. Bested John Jacobs on first hole of a playoff at Superstition Mountain. Made birdie on the 72nd hole of the event to forge the overtime session and then added another birdie on the first extra hole to claim the title. Victory in Arizona was the first of his TOUR career before September 1... Was voted as the circuit's Player of the Month for April... Nearly claimed a second major title, finishing one stroke shy of Stewart Ginn at the FORD SENIOR PLAYERS Championship in July despite shooting a 7-under 65 on Sunday... Also T4 at the Senior PGA Championship at Firestone and T11 at the U.S. Senior Open at Caves Valley... Had a bizarre finish at the FleetBoston Classic. Had a chance to win outright on the final hole, but T3 after three-putting from five feet. 2001: Posted back-to-back victories early in the fall. Won a playoff for the rain-shortened Kroger Senior Classic title. Made a dramatic eagle on the final hole of regulation at the Kroger event to set up a playoff with Tom Jenkins and then won with a birdie on the first extra hole. Hit 3-wood from 245 yards for a one-foot tap-in eagle putt... Then claimed the inaugural Allianz Championship the following week. Used seven birdies in an 11-hole stretch to win by two strokes at Glen Oaks... Also lost by a stroke to Tom Watson at the Senior PGA Championship. Missed an uphill, six-foot birdie putt to tie on Ridgewood CC's final hole. 2000: Claimed the first two victories of his Champions Tour career and yearly winnings of $1.6 million almost matched his entire earnings total in 25 years on the PGA TOUR... Claimed back-to-back victories in northern California at The Transamerica and the Gold Rush Classic. Win in the Napa Valley ended a victory drought of just over 14 years ('86 Seiko-Tucson Match Play Championship). 18-under-par 198 score at Silverado was three better than Bruce Fleisher and was a tournament record... Cruised to a two-stroke victory over Ed Dougherty at the Gold Rush Classic with a 21-under 195 total for 54 holes, a tournament record at the time, and the lowest 54-hole score on the Champions Tour that season. Second-round 62 at the Gold Rush event was a course record at Serrano. Victory near Sacramento allowed him to become the first player since Gibby Gilbert in 1992 to win consecutive starts with sub-200 scores... Recorded his second hole-in-one on the Champions Tour in the opening round of the Boone Valley Classic. 1999: Came closest to a victory at the Bell Atlantic Classic. Fired a final-round 65 Sunday at Hartefeld National to come from four strokes off the pace and catch Tom Jenkins, but eventually lost to Jenkins on the first playoff hole... Made his first hole-in-one on the Champions Tour in the final round of the Royal Caribbean Classic. 1998: Earned full exemption for 1999 by finishing T6 at the National Qualifying Tournament at Grenelefe Golf and Tennis Resort. After carding rounds of 67-76-72, fired a 3-under-par 69 on the final day to secure his top-eight finish.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: Played on the PGA TOUR from 1976-98, with 459 tournaments to his credit and nearly $2 million in career earnings... Enjoyed his greatest success in a two-year span in 1985-86, when he earned three wins and was among the leading money-winners on the circuit... Was fourth on the money list in 1985 with $379,091, including wins at the Greater Milwaukee Open and the Seiko-Tucson Match Play Championship, where he bested Jack Renner in the final... Just missed adding a third victory when he lost in a playoff to Scott Verplank at the Western Open... In 1985, won $326,087 and ranked 15th on the money list with a victory at the Seiko-Tucson Match Play Championship, besting Scott Simpson in the finals. Was unable to make it three in a row in 1987 when the event switched back to a stroke-play format... Underwent surgery on his left wrist and thumb in September 1987, and missed much of 1988 recuperating... Had runner-up finishes in 1989 (Kemper Open) and 1990 (Phoenix Open)... Co-medalist at the 1978 PGA TOUR Fall National Qualifying Tournament with John Fought... First earned card in 1975, but returned home after making just $2,000 in 1976.

PERSONAL: Is the ninth of 12 children... Grew up next to eighth fairway at Roxboro (NC) CC, where father, Elbert Sr., was the superintendent... One of his brothers, Chuck, played for a period on the PGA TOUR and in several events on the Champions Tour in 1998, while another brother, Bill, has been through the National Qualifying Tournament several times... Earned a football scholarship to Morgan State as a running back.

Snead despite closing with a 6-under-par 66 on Sunday...Opened the campaign with a third-place finish at the MasterCard Championship...Was only one stroke out of the lead through two rounds of the SBC Senior Open, but three double bogeys on Sunday dropped him into a T14, six shots back. 2001: Made his first appearance on the circuit a memorable one. Became the youngest winner in Champions Tour history when he claimed the Lightpath Long Island Classic 10 days after turning 50. Edged Allen Doyle and Larry Nelson by one stroke and broke Gil Morgan's record as the youngest winner (50 years, 11 days/ 1996 Ralphs Senior Classic). His 12-foot birdie putt on the final hole at the Meadow Brook Club gave him his first win in TOUR event in his 778th start. Helped his cause early in the final round when he rebounded from a double bogey with a double eagle on the third hole (driver, pitching wedge from 135 yards). 2003 SEASON: Experienced a bittersweet season as he had his finest year on the Champions Tour at the same time he was teaming with long-time caddie and friend Bruce Edwards in his battle against Lou Gehrig's disease... Was either first or second in half of his 14 appearances on the Champions Tour, and as a result of his stellar play throughout the campaign, earned all of the circuit's top honors, including the Charles Schwab Cup, the Jack Nicklaus Player of the Year Award, the Arnold Palmer Award and the Byron Nelson Trophy... Donated a portion of his $1-million annuity for winning the Schwab Cup to ALS research and patient care and other charities. Throughout the course of 2003, helped raise nearly $3 million for ALS-related causes and other charities... Was the leading money-winner for the first time since 1984, with a personal-best $1,853,108, and earned the most money per start on the Champions Tour last year, $132,365... Earned first Player of the Year honor since 1984... Was under par in 37 of 48 rounds and stroke average of 68.81 was the second lowest in Champions Tour history (Hale Irwin, 68.59, 1998)... Became the first player ever to compete in all nine major championships on the PGA TOUR/Champions Tour combined in a single season... Won multiple major titles in a season for the first time on the Champions Tour since Gil Morgan in 1998 and for the first time in his career since 1982. In July, won his second career major on the Champions Tour when he outdueled Englishman Carl Mason on the Ailsa course at Turnberry for an emotional win at the Senior British Open Championship in Scotland. Only had one three-putt over his 74 holes and posted a final-round 64, the lowest finish ever by a winner in Senior British Open history. His 6-under Sunday score, coupled with Mason's double bogey at the 72nd hole, allowed Watson to get into a playoff. Eventually defeated Mason with a par-4 on the second extra hole to become just the 11th player, and first since Hale Irwin in 1998, to win an official event on both the PGA TOUR and Champions Tour at the same venue... In his next start in late August, became the first player since Hale Irwin in 1998 to win consecutive majors when he claimed the JELD-WEN Tradition, the first fifth major in Champions Tour history, near Portland, OR. With Edwards on the bag, edged Jim Ahern, Tom Kite and Gil Morgan by a stroke when he got his ball up and down from a greenside bunker for birdie on the final hole. Roller coaster event included a second-round, 10-under 62 at The Reserve, tying the lowest round ever posted in a major on the Champions Tour, and a 1-over 73 on Saturday that made him just the third Tradition winner ever with an over-par score among the four rounds... Was also the runner-up to Bruce Lietzke at the U.S. Senior Open, falling two strokes short at the Inverness Club in Toledo, OH. Had opened with a 5-under-par 66 at the event and held a three-stroke advantage over Lietzke after the first round before rounds of 72-70-71 to close the tournament... Finished second again, along with Tom Kite and Jim Thorpe, in his next start at the Ford Senior Players Championship. Moved into contention in adverse weather conditions Friday with an 8-under 64, the low round of the day by four strokes, and his best score ever at the TPC of Michigan. Was tied for the 54-hole lead with Mike McCullough and Craig Stadler, but eventually lost by three strokes to Stadler, despite a final-round 69... Edged Jim Thorpe for the money title and also clinched the Charles Schwab Cup at the end of the season with a solo second-place finish at the Charles Schwab Cup Championship in Sonoma, CA... Took over the Schwab Cup lead for good with his victory at the JELD-WEN Tradition. Earlier in the year, posted three consecutive rounds in the 60s at The ACE Group Classic, but along with Des Smyth, finished three strokes back of Vicente Fernandez, his third runner-up effort in Naples in the last four events... Was also a runner-up at the inaugural Kinko's Classic of Austin after falling to Hale Irwin on the second playoff hole... Received a special exemption to play in his first U.S. Open since 2000 and made headlines on Thursday when he was tied for the first-round lead after posting a 5-under 65. Eventually T28 at Olympia Fields after shooting 7-over 147 on the weekend... Turned in masterful performance at the British Open at Royal St. George's, finishing T18 thanks in part to a closing-round 69... Missed the cut at both the Masters, his 30th appearance at Augusta National, and the PGA Championship... Received the Card Walker Award during the week of the Bayer Advantage Celebrity Pro-Am and was honored with the Payne Stewart Award at The TOUR Championship in Houston.

CHAMPIONS TOUR CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 2002: For the second time, saved his best for last and won the season-ending SENIOR TOUR Championship at Gaillardia. Opened with a 2-over 74, but played the last 52 holes of the event without making a bogey (17-under) despite cold, rainy weather in Oklahoma City. His $440,000 paycheck was largest as a professional. Earned 440 Charles Schwab Cup points and vaulted from 10th position into fourth in the final points standings (1,582 points: $200,000 annuity)... Contended down the stretch at the rain-shortened Royal Caribbean Classic before eventually T2 along with Isao Aoki and Bruce Fleisher, one stroke behind John Jacobs... Also went head to head down the stretch with Hale Irwin at The ACE Group Classic before losing by one stroke. Went for the green in two at the par-5 17th hole, but came up short in the water and eventually made a bogey. Made his first hole-in-one on the Champions Tour and 13th of his career in the opening round (16th hole, 6-iron, 156 yards) at TwinEagles... Recorded third consecutive runner-up finish after losing in a playoff to Tom Kite at SBC Senior Classic. Chipped in for eagle from 123 feet on the 54th hole to force Kite to make a five-foot birdie putt to tie. Kite won with a par on the second playoff hole... Lost to Don Pooley in a playoff for the U.S. Senior Open at Caves Valley. Played his last 10 holes in 5-under to catch Pooley and then matched him with three pars and a birdie in overtime before finally falling to Pooley's birdie on No. 18, the fifth extra hole... Was also one of three players to T2 at the SAS Championship behind Bruce Lietzke... Finished solo seventh at the MasterCard Colonial, his 11th career top-10 effort at Colonial and his best PGA TOUR finish since T9 at the 2000 PGA Championship. 2001: Won his first Champions Tour major title. Triumphed at the Senior PGA Championship in New Jersey. After opening with a 72, followed with rounds of 69-66-67 to edge Jim Thorpe by one stroke at Ridgewood CC... Inducted into the Bay Area Sports Hall of Fame during the week of the Siebel Classic in Silicon Valley. 2000: Saved his best for the last official event of the season, claiming the IR SENIOR TOUR Championship in Myrtle Beach. Was T3 after 54 holes, but fired a 6-under-par 66 on the final day for the victory. Held off a late charge by John Jacobs for a one-stroke win. Win at TPC of Myrtle Beach made him the first to claim season-ending events on both TOURs (won '87 Nabisco Championship of Golf)... Lost twice in playoffs. Was one of four players involved in the overtime session at The ACE Group Classic, eventually falling to Lanny Wadkins... Along with Larry Nelson, lost in a three-way playoff to Tom Kite at The Countrywide Tradition... Also battled Larry Nelson until the final hole at the Boone Valley Classic before finishing solo second in St. Louis... T9 at the PGA Championship near Louisville, the best performance by a senior in that event since Sam Snead T3 in 1974. Matched his career-best round in a PGA Championship when he posted a 65 on Saturday at Valhalla. 1999: Claimed his first Champions Tour win in his second start, the Bank One Championship in Dallas... At the time, became the third-youngest player ever to win a Champions Tour event at 50 years, 15 days. NOTES:

When Lee Trevino birdied the first hole to win a skin and $20,000, it was his first skin in the Champions Skins Game since 1994 when he birdied the eighth hole to win three skins and $50,000 at Mauna Lani. He was blanked in 1995 and 1997, his last two appearances...Trevino finally won The ConAgra Foods Champions Skins Game in his seventh attempt. His best previous finish was second place in 1991 when he won seven skins and $125,000...Jack Nicklaus' win on the eighth hole was worth seven skins and $160,000. The amount established a mark for the most money won for one skin on the front nine. By winning $200,000 in the tournament's first day of competition, Hale Irwin has won $1,570,000 in The ConAgra Foods Champions Skins Game and $3,253,475 in all professional golf tournaments he has played in Hawaii. The money he won at the Champions Skins Game is, of course, unofficial.

KEYS TO VICTORY:

Dana Quigley birdied two of the last three holes to hold off Larry Nelson for the eighth win of his Champions Tour career. Quigley's foot-and-a-half putt at 18 was the difference as Nelson could not recover from an awkward fairway lie on the final hole. The pair had been tied going to 18 after Nelson made long birdie putts at 16 and 17. On the final hole, Nelson's tee shot landed near a sprinkler head, forcing him to hit his second shot while standing partially in a hole. He pulled his approach shot left, and his subsequent blast out and two-putt led to a bogey, giving Quigley a two-stroke victory. Quigley birdied 18 after hitting an almost-perfect shot from 106 yards away with his 60-degree wedge. The ball stopped just over a foot from the hole. Quigley's win denied Nelson his second win at Hualalai in the last three years. Nelson was the winner in 2001. The victory also gave Quigley two wins in his last three starts, dating back to the 2002 season.

NOTES:

Arnold Palmer shot his age in the opening round when he carded a 73...Bruce Lietzke made three eagles in the second round, becoming just the fourth player to do so and the first since Rocky Thompson in 1992 at the Kaanapali Classic... Quigley, Nelson and Fuzzy Zoeller all tied the 36-hole scoring mark with 15-under-par 131s.

Tournament Record:

195, Gil Morgan, 1998

Tournament and Current Course 18-Hole Record:

63, Tom Kite, 2002, Fuzzy Zoeller, 2003

KEYS TO VICTORY

Dave Barr birdied the last four holes to become the first Canadian to win on the Champions Tour. Barr was four shots off the lead as he made his way to the 15th hole on Sunday, but he holed seven-foot birdie putts on Nos. 15 and 16. He then ran home a 35-footer for birdie at the par-3 17th to tie both Gil Morgan and Bobby Wadkins for the lead. Playing with Wadkins and just ahead of Morgan, Barr pulled his second shot left near the grandstands on the par-5 18th. After receiving a free drop, he pitched his third shot 35 feet past the hole and then curled in the birdie putt to take the lead. Wadkins found himself in the greenside bunker in two and blasted out to within six feet of the hole. His birdie putt to tie Barr slid past the hole. Morgan tied Barr with a 15-foot birdie putt at No. 17 but pushed his drive to the right at the 18th into the mangrove trees. He eventually chipped his fourth shot seven feet left of the hole and was unable to send the tournament into a playoff when his par-saving putt lipped out.

KEYS TO VICTORY

Vicente Fernandez ended a victory drought of three years, nine months with his three-stroke win in Naples. The Argentine made bogey on his first of 54 holes but didn't make another. He assumed control of the tournament with a birdie at the par-4 10th Sunday and opened a two-stroke advantage with a two-putt birdie from 20 feet at the par-5 17th. Fernandez left himself with a long birdie chance on the last hole and capped his week by draining the 61-foot putt. Des Smyth, the medalist from Q-School, was impressive in his Champions Tour debut, closing the event with birdies on five of his final six holes. The Irishman's fast finish allowed him to grab a share of second place with Tom Watson, who made birdies on three of his last four holes at The Club at TwinEagles.

KEYS TO VICTORY

Bruce Fleisher captured his second Verizon Classic title in the last four years, outdueling Hale Irwin down the stretch. Irwin had forged a one-stroke lead over Fleisher with birdies at the 12th, 14th and 15th holes. The tournament's dramatic swing came at the par-3 17th. After Irwin put his tee shot 20 feet from the hole, Fleisher rifled a 3-iron shot to within seven feet of the flag. Irwin's first putt went five feet past the hole, and after Fleisher holed his birdie putt, Irwin missed the comeback effort for par. Both players had makeable birdie putts at No. 18, but when Irwin's 13-foot birdie effort hung on the lip, Fleisher had his 16th Champions Tour title.

KEYS TO VICTORY

David Eger birdied three of the last four holes to nip Hale Irwin, Eamonn Darcy, Bruce Lietzke and Tom Jenkins by one stroke. Eger, who started the final round in seventh place, four strokes behind, shot a closing-round, 7-under 65. He made eight birdies, with his only blemish coming on the 13th hole when he hit his tee shot out of bounds. However, he followed with birdies on 15, 17 and 18 for his first career win. The players in the day's final group—Darcy, Lietzke and Jenkins—all had opportunities to tie Eger with birdies on the par-5 18th hole, but all three players failed to make their putts.

KEYS TO VICTORY

Tom Purtzer rolled in a 58-foot eagle putt on the final hole to end Gil Morgan's bid for his third win in the rain-shortened event near Los Angeles. Morgan had a two-stroke advantage over Purtzer going to the final hole but missed an eight-foot par putt that would have forced a play-off. Purtzer had dropped two strokes behind Morgan when he bogeyed the 17th hole, but his eagle putt pulled him even with Morgan. It was Morgan's second shot at 18 which proved costly. He pulled his 3-wood left, and after hitting a 9-iron to 30 feet, three-putted, giving Purtzer his first Champions Tour title. There were five lead changes during the round.

KEYS TO VICTORY

Rodger Davis used the impetus of his 36-hole tournament scoring record to go on to a four-stroke victory over Larry Nelson, the first of his Champions Tour career. Davis opened with rounds of 65-64 for a 36-hole total of 13-under-par 129. He closed with a 3-under-par 68 for his four-stroke margin. Davis birdied holes two and three and showed some signs of faltering with bogeys at five and eight. But the Australian did not make a bogey over the last 10 holes. He birdied holes 11, 13 and 16 to pull away from the field.

Tournament Record:
196, Hale Irwin, 2002

Tournament and Current Course 18-Hole Record:
62, Hale Irwin, 1998

KEYS TO VICTORY

Despite making par on the final 10 holes, Bruce Lietzke managed to hold off both Dana Quigley and David Eger for his sixth career Champions Tour title. Lietzke missed just one green in the final round but struggled with the putter. Quigley seemed to be the most likely to catch Lietzke. He made a 12-foot birdie putt at No. 15 to get within one shot of Lietzke. But he couldn't capitalize on any other birdie opportunities down the stretch. Lietzke's 10-under 206 earned him a check for $350,000, at the time the largest paycheck of his career.

NOTES

In winning the Raphael Division, the team of Gary Koch and Roger Maltbie went all 36 holes of the better-ball competition without making a bogey... Bruce Lietzke and Leonard Thompson led the field in Greens in Regulation for the week, with both players hitting 46 of 54 (85 percent) greens... The driveable par-4 14th hole at the Westin Savannah Harbor course proved to be the difference in the tournament. Lietzke played the hole in 3-under (eagle-birdie-par) while David Eger was 1-under there and Dana Quigley made par all three days... Arnold Palmer shot his age for the second time in 2003 when he posted a 1-over 73 in the first round... Bob Charles made his first Champions Tour start of the year after rehabbing from an elbow injury.

KEYS TO VICTORY

While his chief competitors were faltering, Tom Jenkins made four birdies over his last 14 holes to cruise to a three-stroke victory over Bruce Fleisher. It was Jenkins' fourth win in five years on the Champions Tour. Jenkins and Fleisher trailed Hale Irwin by one stroke after two days, but Irwin faltered in the final round. After making it through the tournament's first 38 holes without a bogey, Irwin had four in the next 12 holes and eventually finished in third, tied with Jim Colbert five shots back of Jenkins. Fleisher stayed in contention until he missed a five-foot par putt on No. 16 and bogeyed again on No. 18.

Tournament Record:
 195, Hale Irwin, 2001

Course Record:
 63, Jack Kiefer, 1992; Graham Marsh, 1995; Terry Dill, 1998; Gil Morgan, 2001; Hale Irwin, 2002

KEYS TO VICTORY

Hale Irwin overcame double and triple bogeys on the first six holes to defeat Tom Watson in a two-hole playoff for his 37th career Champions Tour title. After a double bogey on the third hole, Irwin four-putted the par-4 sixth hole to fall four strokes behind leader Tom Kite. Irwin appeared to have ruined his chances when he three-putted from inches away, including a whiff on his bogey effort. However, from that point on, Irwin hung close to Kite, who saw his own chances slip away with bogeys on 17 and 18 when it appeared the tournament was his to win. Irwin sank short birdie putts on 17 and 18 and found himself tied with Watson at the close of play. After pars by Irwin and Watson on the first playoff hole, Watson narrowly missed on his birdie effort from 25 feet on the second playoff hole, the par-3, 16th. Irwin hit a 7-iron to eight feet and then drained his birdie putt to end the playoff.

NOTES:

Hale Irwin's win marked the ninth consecutive year he has won at least one event, tying the all-time Champions Tour record held by Miller Barber (1981-89)... Tom Watson's Champions Tour playoff record fell to 0-5... Ed Fiori, playing on a sponsor's exemption, finished tied for 35th in his Champions Tour debut... This was the Champions Tour's first visit to Austin since the 1994 Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf.

KEYS TO VICTORY

Jay Sigel's nine-foot birdie putt on the last hole helped him turn back Mike McCullough, giving Sigel his eighth career Champions Tour win. Sigel's birdie at the par-5 18th capped a 7-under, 65 in the final round that tied the course record at The National Golf Club of Kansas City. McCullough, playing one group behind the 59-year-old Sigel, had pulled into a tie after making three straight birdies on Nos. 13, 14 and 15. However, on the last hole, after Sigel made his birdie, McCullough pulled his drive into the rough and was forced to lay up with his second shot. He eventually missed his 20-foot bid for birdie that would have sent the event into a play-off.

SECTION 3 / SUMMARIES

KEYS TO VICTORY

Mistake-free play over the course of 54 holes was the difference for Morris Hatalsky in his one-stroke win over Allen Doyle. Hatalsky, who played all 54 holes without a bogey, closed with a 3-under-par 67 to nip local favorite Doyle, who lives just 35 miles away in nearby LaGrange, GA. Hatalsky finished Sunday's final round with eight straight pars. But birdies on Nos. 4, 7 and 10 would prove critical in his second career victory. "I was basically coaxing in 20-, 25-footers for two putts," Hatalsky said. "I saw Allen didn't make birdie on 18, so there was no pressure on me to make birdie."

Tournament Record:
 198, Morris Hatalsky, 2003
Course Record:
 62, Bruce Fleisher, 2003

NOTES:

Morris Hatalsky's string of consecutive holes without a bogey ended at 98 when he made a bogey on the second hole in the second round. However, he still broke the all-time Champions Tour record of 97 set in 1994 by the late Jack Kiefer. Jim Ahern's 36-hole total of 15-under-par 127 broke the tournament mark of 14-under-par 128 by Isao Aoki in 1998...Ahern's 127 was also the fourth best (tie with Tom Kite/2001 Gold Rush Classic) 36-hole, opening rounds effort in Champions Tour history...Ahern's 7-under-par 29 on the front nine was the best front nine in tournament history...The tournament had a player better his age for the third time in the last four years when 72-year-old Gene Littler shot a 71 in the final round. Miller Barber did it in 2000 and 2002.

Tournament Record:

SECTION 3 / SUMMARIES

2003 SENIOR PGA CHAMPIONSHIP

KEYS TO VICTORY

John Jacobs birdied the 15th and 16th holes at Aronimink to pull away from Bobby Wadkins for his first Champions Tour major title. A rain suspension Saturday forced Jacobs to play 31 holes Sunday. Hoping just to lag a 25-foot putt close to the hole, Jacobs seized control of the championship by making his birdie putt on the par-4 15th. Jacobs then reached the par-5 16th in two and two-putted for a birdie, giving him a two-stroke lead over Wadkins, who had three putted for par at No. 16 moments earlier. Wadkins, in fact, did not birdie either of Aronimink's par-5s over his four rounds on the course.

NOTES

John Jacobs' victory at age 58 made him the oldest player ever to win a major on the Champions Tour and the oldest to win a major since 61-year-old Pete Cooper claimed the Senior PGA in 1976. ...Defending champion Fuzzy Zoeller was the only player in the field at Aronimink to have par/better scores for all four rounds. ...Craig Stadler tied for 15th in his Champions Tour debut. Stadler was assessed a two-stroke penalty Saturday morning after arriving two minutes, 20 seconds late to the No. 1 tee. ...Jay Sigel, an Aronimink member, tied for 17th at his home club. ...Jack Nicklaus missed his first cut in a senior major, ending a streak of 43 straight cuts made since joining the Champions Tour in 1990.

Tournament Record:
268, Sam Snead, 1973

Tournament 18-Hole Record:
63, Buck White, 1961; Arnold Palmer, 1984

KEYS TO VICTORY

Doug Tewell caught Eamonn Darcy with a dramatic eagle on the par-5 17th hole and then eventually defeated the former Irish Ryder Cup star in a playoff for his seventh career Champions Tour title. Tewell trailed Darcy by two strokes before hitting a 4-iron approach from 214 yards to within 15 feet at No. 17. Just shortly after Darcy two-putted for a par at the last hole, Tewell made his 15-foot eagle putt that propelled him into the playoff. Darcy missed a golden opportunity on the first playoff hole when he missed a six-foot par putt after using a 5-wood to chip from the rough behind the green. Tewell eventually won with a 14-foot birdie putt two holes later.

Tournament Record:
198, Larry Nelson, 2000

KEYS TO VICTORY

Despite hitting just 28 of a possible 60 fairways (46.7 percent) for the week, it was Bruce Lietzke's performance on the greens that proved decisive. That, coupled with a third-round 64, helped Lietzke to his first major championship of any kind as he defeated Tom Watson by two strokes. Lietzke needed just 107 putts for the week, an average of just under 27 per day. Lietzke started the final round with a four-stroke margin over Watson and Vicente Fernandez, but neither of his challengers could make up the difference despite consecutive bogeys by Lietzke on the final two holes. Watson closed with a 71, while Fernandez finished with a 72.

KEYS TO VICTORY

Four events into his Champions Tour career, Craig Stadler broke away early from a pack of players and then cruised to his first victory and first major championship. Stadler started the final round in a three-way tie for the lead but moved ahead for good with three consecutive birdies on the front nine (Nos. 5-7). After making a short birdie putt at No. 10 to increase his lead to three strokes, Stadler put himself out of reach when he chipped in for birdie at the par-3 12th. Despite a flurry of birdies from both Tom Kite and Jim Thorpe, as well as a two-hour rain delay, Stadler remained in control and secured the three-shot triumph, his first victory since the 1996 Nissan Open in Los Angeles.

Tournament Record:
261, Jack Nicklaus, 1990

Tournament and Current Course 18-Hole Record:
63, Jim Colbert, 1995; Hubert Green, 2002; Tom Kite, 2003

KEYS TO VICTORY

Tom Watson revived memories of his famous Duel In The Sun at Turnberry when he closed with a 6-under-par 64 and then defeated England's Carl Mason with a par-4 on the second hole of a sudden-death playoff. Playing the 18th a second time, Watson's drive split the fairway while Mason's tee shot found the fairway bunker. After Mason pitched out from the bunker, he did not reach the putting surface until he had played four strokes. Watson's second shot stopped pin high from the flag, and he routinely two-putted for the victory.

KEYS TO VICTORY

Hometown favorite Allen Doyle didn't disappoint his local followers. Doyle, who grew up just a few miles from the Nashawtuc Country Club layout in Concord, cruised to a three-stroke victory. After opening with a 68, Doyle followed with a tournament-record 63 in the second round. Doyle closed with a 4-under 67 as he made pars on the last 10 holes on his way to his first win in two years.

Doyle started the final round with a two-stroke margin over defending champion Bob Gilder and James Mason. He made eagle on No. 5 and carded a birdie on No. 8 to increase his lead to four strokes. None of his challengers ever made a serious run after that.

Tournament Record:
 198, Chi Chi Rodriguez, 1988; Allen Doyle, 2003
Tournament and Current Course 18-Hole Record:
 63, Allen Doyle, 2003

KEYS TO VICTORY

Wayne Levi made a four-foot birdie putt on the 18th hole to win his first Champions Tour title. On Sunday, Levi found himself in trouble when his second shot landed on the edge of the rough on the 18th hole. However, the 1990 PGA TOUR Player of the Year deftly chipped to within four feet of the hole and sank the ensuing putt for his first win. He was one of nearly a half-dozen players who were in contention at various points on the final day, but he would be the last one standing as miscues down the stretch proved costly for some challengers. Second-round leader Tom Purtzer hit two balls in the water at 17, on his way to a triple bogey. Ben Crenshaw, who was tied for the lead on the back nine, suffered a similar fate when he double bogeyed after two of his tee shots found water on No. 14. Gil Morgan, another challenger, saw his second shot at 18 bounce near a scoreboard, and he eventually missed a seven-foot birdie putt that would have gotten him into a playoff. Runner-up Morris Hatalsky also ran into trouble, starting his back nine Sunday with a double bogey.

KEYS TO VICTORY

Jim Thorpe's 10-foot birdie putt on the 17th hole helped him overtake Bob Gilder and earn him his first title of the 2003 season. Thorpe started the day with a two-stroke margin over Gilder, but a double bogey on the fourth hole dropped him one behind Gilder. The pair was even at the turn, and Gilder twice had one-stroke leads on the back nine after birdies on Nos. 11 and 14. But Thorpe tied Gilder with a birdie at 16 and then added another at 17 to take the lead for good. Gilder had a six-foot putt to send the tournament to a playoff, but it slid by, preserving Thorpe's win.

KEYS TO VICTORY

With temperatures hovering near 100 degrees on the weekend, Don Pooley completed his comeback from shoulder surgery with a three-stroke victory over Bruce Lietzke, Bruce Fleisher and Jim Thorpe. Pooley had been sidelined for five months and was playing in just his eighth event of the 2003 season. Pooley's 25-foot eagle putt at No. 11, a hole that Fleisher bogeyed and Thorpe parred, and a six-foot birdie putt at No. 14 enabled him to break away from a congested leaderboard that included former major league pitcher Rick Rhoden. Rhoden took a one-shot lead to No. 12, but three-putted the next three holes for bogey and eventually tied for fifth in the event.

Tournament Record:
199, Jim Thorpe, 2001

Tournament and Current Course 18-Hole Record:
63, John Bland, 2002

KEYS TO VICTORY

Tom Watson fulfilled a promise to his cad-die, Bruce Edwards, by winning the JELD-WEN Tradition, his second consecutive major championship win; Watson's clutch up-and-down birdie on the final hole at The Reserve Vineyards and Golf Club gave him multiple majors in a season for the first time since 1982. After finding the greenside bunker with his second shot on the par-5 18th hole, Watson blasted out to within four feet of the hole and made the birdie putt. He finished one stroke ahead of Tom Kite, Jim Ahern and Gil Morgan, who all had chances to tie Watson, but couldn't. Playing just ahead of Watson, Morgan hit an errant tee shot on the 18th and eventually missed a lengthy birdie attempt. Ahern was just over the final green in two, but couldn't convert after leaving his pitch shot eight feet from the hole. Kite had the final chance to catch Watson, but after pitching his third shot to within seven feet of the flag, he left his birdie putt short.

Tournament Record:
265, Doug Tewell, 2001

Tournament and Current Course 18-Hole Record:
62, Doug Tewell, 2001; Tom Watson, 2003

KEYS TO VICTORY

Gil Morgan shook off the affects of a slow start to go wire-to-wire at the Tournament Players Club at River's Bend. Morgan, who held a two-stroke margin over eventual runner-up Doug Tewell after 36 holes, started the day with back-to-back birdies on Nos. 3 and 4, but from that point on he played solid golf with seven birdies in the final 14 holes, with just one more bogey. He held his two-stroke margin through nine holes and increased his margin to three strokes with a birdie at No. 12. However, his bogey at No. 13 and a Tewell birdie dropped the margin back to one stroke with five to play. From that point on, Morgan did not make a mistake, adding birdies on No. 15 and No. 18 to finish two better than Tewell, who missed birdie putts of 12 and nine feet, respectively, on the two finishing holes.

KEYS TO VICTORY

A bee sting couldn't stop Larry Nelson from claiming his first victory in nearly two years. Prior to his win near Baltimore, Nelson's last victory came at the 2001 SBC Championship. A bee stung Nelson on the ninth hole when he touched the belt area on his pants. After the subsequent pain diminished, Nelson played near flawless golf the rest of the way, finishing with two birdies and no bogeys on the final nine holes. The first came at No. 11 when he drained a 25-foot putt. He added some insurance with a 15-foot birdie putt at No. 16. Nelson also made a nifty up and down at No. 18. Along the way he held off a number of contenders, including runner-up Doug Tewell, Des Smyth, Jim Dent and Jay Sigel. It was the second straight week Tewell had finished in the runner-up position, having finished second to Gil Morgan at the Kroger Classic.

KEYS TO VICTORY

D.A. Weibring's dramatic eagle-birdie finish at Prestonwood was good enough to overtake Tom Kite and hold off Bobby Wadkins for his first Champions Tour title. Weibring, battling flu-like symptoms for most of the week, seemed out of contention after three-putting the par-4 16th hole. However, after landing a 4-wood second shot to within nine feet on the par-5 17th, Weibring made the putt for eagle to move back into a tie for the lead. He then followed up the eagle with a 14-foot birdie putt on No. 18 to seal his initial title in his 10th Champions Tour start.

Tournament Record:
201, Bruce Lietzke, 2001

Tournament and Current Course 18-Hole Record:
61, Tom Kite, 2003

Charles went on to defeat Mike Hill with a par on the first playoff hole for the 22nd Georgia-Pacific Grand Champions title of his career. . . Prior to his 61 on Sunday, Tom Kite's lowest score on the Champions Tour was a 62 in the second round of the 2001 Gold Rush Classic. He also shot 62 four times on the PGA TOUR, most recently in the final round of the 1993 Bob Hope Chrysler Classic. . . Andy Bean's tie-for-eighth finish at Prestonwood gave him his first top 10 as a member of the Champions Tour. . . Prestonwood's Director of Golf Vance Heafner, a PGA TOUR veteran, becomes eligible to join the Champions Tour on August 11, 2004.

GREATER HICKORY CLASSIC AT ROCK BARN
2003	Craig Stadler	201	Larry Nelson	203	Rock Barn Golf & Spa (Jones); Conover, NC	72/7,023

KEYS TO VICTORY

Craig Stadler took advantage of a hot start Sunday to cruise past Larry Nelson for his second Champions Tour title in just his 12th event since turning 50 in June. Stadler vaulted into the lead after opening his final round with four straight birdies, including a 50-foot putt on No. 2. He turned for home with a two-stroke lead over Nelson after making birdie at No. 7 and then moved to 15-under with an eight-foot birdie putt on No. 11. Moments later, Nelson three-putted from 25 feet on the same hole for a bogey to fall four shots back. Nelson never regained any momentum down the stretch, and Stadler closed with seven straight pars.

Tournament and Current Course 18-Hole Record:
64, Bruce Fleisher, Tom Kite, Larry Nelson, 2003

NOTES

Craig Stadler's win in the inaugural event at Rock Barn was his third in North Carolina. In his PGA TOUR career, Stadler won the 1980 Greater Greensboro Open and the 1991 TOUR Championship at Pinehurst. Miller Barber matched his age for the third time in 2003 with a 72 in the second round. Joe Inman's 9-under 63 included just 22 putts and equaled his Champions Tour career-low round. Inman had a 63 on Saturday at the 1999 Kroger Classic. Jim Thorpe was 3-over-par after his first five holes Friday but played his last 49 holes in 15-under to finish solo third in the event. Thorpe played Rock Barn's par 5s in 11-under, the best of any player in the field.

KEYS TO VICTORY

Hale Irwin and Tom Kite, who have staged numerous battles over the years, became involved in another on Hawaii's North Shore. While Kite was seeking his first win of the 2003 season, Irwin was looking to become the first player on the Champions Tour to win the same event four consecutive times. Irwin shared the first-round lead before Kite's second-round 5-under-par 67 gave him sole possession of the lead after two rounds, three better than Irwin. However, Irwin quickly made up ground in Sunday's final round when he opened with birdies on three of the first four holes to grab the lead after Kite bogeyed No. 3. There would be five lead changes after that, with the margin never greater than one. Irwin seized control at No. 17 when he hit his 8-iron to 18 feet and dropped in his birdie putt to go back in front by one. Needing a birdie on the par-5, final hole, Kite decided to go for the green in two, but his 3-wood shot over a water hazard was short, hit some rocks, and landed in the water—ending any hopes for the win.

KEYS TO VICTORY

Craig Stadler offset early birdies by both Bob Gilder and Tom Watson on Sunday with a pair of his own on the front nine and eventually cruised to his third victory on the Champions Tour in his 13th start. For Stadler, the victory at Oak Hills was also his second consecutive on the Champions Tour. He started the final round with a two-stroke lead and after watching Gilder and Watson take turns birdieing the first and second holes, Stadler countered with a 20-foot birdie at No. 3. After Watson made back-to-back bogeys at the eighth and ninth holes, Stadler's lead was three strokes at the turn. He then hit driver, 4-iron to 15 feet on the par-5 10th hole and calmly rolled in the eagle putt to increase his lead to five strokes. Gilder was destined to finish second in this event for a third consecutive year when he fell six strokes back after three-putting from 12 feet for bogey on No. 11. Even with a bogey of his own at the 17th hole, Stadler finished four strokes ahead of Gilder, the largest margin of victory in tournament history.

KEYS TO VICTORY

Before the start of the season-ending event, Jim Thorpe predicted that a 20-under total would win at Sonoma Golf Club. Thanks to a dream finish, he was correct. Thorpe backed up a dramatic eagle at No. 16 with a 10-foot birdie at the par-3 17th to outduel Tom Watson. Thorpe clung to a one-stroke lead over a charging Watson as both players approached the 16th green in the final round. With Watson 15 feet away from a possible tying birdie, Thorpe holed a 67-foot eagle putt from just off the front of the putting surface. Watson didn't immediately go away, however, making his birdie putt after Thorpe picked his ball out of the hole. But Thorpe's birdie on No. 17 sealed the deal and gave him his third Champions Tour career victory in Northern California and a $440,000 check, his largest payday ever. Thorpe became the first wire-to-wire winner of this event since Jim Colbert led from start-to-finish in 1995.

Tournament Record:

Glossary Of Statistics

Total Driving

Total Driving is computed by totaling a player's rank in driving distance and driving accuracy.

Driving Distance*

The average number of yards per measured drive. Driving distance is measured on two holes per round. Care is taken to select holes which face in opposite directions to counteract the effects of wind. Drives are measured to the point they come to rest, regardless of whether they are in the fairway or not.

Driving Accuracy

The percentage of time a player is able to hit the fairway with his tee shot.

Greens in Regulation

The percentage of time a player was able to hit the green in regulation (greens hit in regulation/holes played). Note: A green is considered hit in regulation if any part of the ball is touching the putting surface and the number of strokes taken is two or less than par.

Putting Average

Measures putting performance on greens hit in regulation. For each green hit in regulation, the total number of putts is divided by the number of greens hit in regulation. By using greens hit in regulation, we are able to eliminate the affects of chipping close and one-putting in the computation.

Sand Saves Percentage

The percentage of time a player is able to get up and down once in a greenside sand bunker. Note: This up and down is computed regardless of score on the hole.

Eagles (holes per)

The average number of holes between each eagle.

Birdie Leaders

The average number of birdies made per round played.

All Around

This statistic is computed by totaling a player's rank in each of the following statistics: Scoring Leaders, Putting Leaders, Eagle Leaders, Birdie Leaders, Sand Saves, Greens in Regulation, Driving Distance and Driving Accuracy.

* As ShotLink is utilized on the Champions Tour in 2004, it will provide capabilities to greatly enhance Champions Tour statistical measurements.

* Note: The PGA TOUR Policy Board approved in September 2002 the retroactive awarding of an official victory to winners of the British Open prior to 1995. The Policy Board determined that champions prior to 1995 should be recognized as having won a major championship while also receiving career victory credit. Player records were adjusted at the start of the 2003 season so as to not change eligibility in the PGA TOUR Past Champions category during the course of the 2002 season.

With the brands' non-alcohol partner O'Doul's and O'Doul's Amber, Michelob, Michelob Light and Michelob ULTRA have the perfect opportunity to reach an important and similar demographic, applying grassroots retail promotions, golf-themed packaging and advertising, PGA TOUR tournament sponsorships and national programs. The Michelob brand family also is a founding sponsor of PGATOUR.COM, the PGA TOUR's official Internet site. This interactive source for TOUR information features news coverage, live scoring, player bios and TOUR merchandise, as well as links to Michelob ULTRA promotional games and trivia contests. As support sponsor of several events on the PGA TOUR and Champions Tour, the Michelob brand family continues to emphasize its commitment to golf. Its association with the game is a pivotal element in the Michelob brand family's fully integrated golf marketing strategy and establishes Michelob, Michelob Light and the low-carb, low-calorie Michelob ULTRA as the beers for golf.

CANON U.S.A., INC.

As the "Official Copier, Fax, Multi-Function Printer, Printer, Scanner, Camera and Binocular of the PGA TOUR and Champions Tour," Canon equipment helps make TOUR events successful throughout the year.

Canon supplies office equipment to many tournaments on the PGA TOUR and Champions Tour, and fans benefit from Canon's technology through product demonstrations, binocular loan programs and on-site promotional activities. PGA TOUR Rules Officials and ShotLink volunteers use Canon binoculars, featuring their special image stabilization technology, to view the best shots from any distance.

In 2003, Canon U.S.A. and PGA TOUR player Briny Baird created a program called Canon4Kids, which seeks to locate missing children across America through a partnership with the National Center for Missing and Exploited Children. During all 2004 PGA TOUR events he plays, Baird will again place a digital photo of a local missing child, selected by NCMEC, on his golf bag along with the phone number (1-800-THE-LOST) for people to call if they recognize the child or have any valuable information.

Additionally, Canon4Kids is tied to Baird's performance on the PGA TOUR through Canon's Birdies for Charity program. For each birdie registered by Baird, Canon will donate $100 to NCMEC. Each eagle is worth $250, and $1,000 is donated for every hole-in-one. In 2003, Baird had 418 birdies and 13 eagles, resulting in $45,050 donated to NCMEC on Canon's behalf.

Canon also supports junior golf through its association with the American Junior Golf Association, and by hosting the AJGA's Canon Cup, one of the most-popular events in junior golf. The Canon Cup features 40 of the best junior golfers competing in a Ryder Cup format. Past participants now playing on the professional circuits include Tiger Woods, Beth Bauer, Stewart Cink, Kelli Kuehne, Charles Howell III, Grace Park and David Gossett. Their names, and many others, are etched onto the Canon Cup trophy, making the Canon Cup one of the most prestigious junior golf events.

Charity: Giving Back...The Heart of the PGA TOUR

Success on the PGA TOUR can be seen in the true mission of the organization: Giving back in the communities where we play.

This is evidenced by the efforts of tournaments, volunteers and players in raising money and awareness for charitable giving which has benefited countless people and programs.

The beneficiaries come from programs such as Children's Healthcare of Atlanta (BellSouth Classic) and the Boys and Girls Club of Assabet Valley (FleetBoston Classic), the 2002 PGA TOUR and Champions Tour Charities of the Year, respectively.

Children's Healthcare of Atlanta, one of the largest pediatric healthcare systems in the country, has received in excess of $10 million from the BellSouth Classic since 1981. The Boys and Girls Club of Assabet Valley serves over 600 youth in the Concord, MA, area, an average of 90 children per day between the ages of 5 and 18, and thrives just nine years after closing.

The impact is also made by volunteers such as Dick Searle at the AT&T Pebble Beach National Pro-Am and Mary Wright at the Kroger Classic, the 2002 PGA TOUR and Champions Tour Volunteers of the Year, respectively. Searle has served at the Pebble Beach tournament for almost 60 years, following in his father's footsteps as a volunteer. Wright has donated her efforts for more than 20 years coordinating volunteers at professional golf events in the Cincinnati area, including the Kroger Classic since its 1990 inception.

Tournaments make a great contribution in this area also, led by the EDS Byron Nelson Championship on the PGA TOUR, the BMW Charity Pro-Am at The Cliffs on the Nationwide Tour and the Toshiba Senior Classic and 3M Championship on the Champions Tour, which provided the largest donations to charity in 2003.

"Giving back to the communities in which our events are held is at the heart of the PGA TOUR," PGA TOUR Commissioner Tim Finchem said. "It reflects directly on a number of entities, namely tournaments, sponsors, players, volunteers and communities, all working together toward a common goal. Charity is what drives and motivates those involved to make the commitments and sacrifices they do.

"In addition, the individual players add charity dollars at their own charity events and contribute significantly to the overall mix." Players enthusiastically reach out to help the needy through charitable efforts in their own home communities.

Tom Watson served as a great example in 2003, helping to raise approximately $3 million to support friend and caddie Bruce Edwards in his fight against ALS, including donating the $1-million annuity from winning the Champions Tour's Charles Schwab Cup to the cause. Watson also was honored with the Card Walker Award, which recognizes a player's contribution to junior golf, for his work with young golfers in his hometown of Kansas City.

Since the first donation of $10,000 by the Palm Beach Invitational in 1938, the combined charitable effort from all three Tours has reached more than $800 million. All three Tours contributed in excess of $70 million to charity in 2003.

In the communities where tournaments take place, giving back remains at the heart of the PGA TOUR.

Georgia-Pacific Grand Champions

Champions Tour tournaments.

The Georgia-Pacific Grand Champions competition is open to players 60 years of age and older who are entered in the full-field Champions Tour event. Scores posted during the first two rounds of the event (Friday and Saturday) determine the winner of this "tournament within a tournament," with the exception of the season ending Georgia-Pacific Grand Champions Championship, where the first three rounds of the four-round Charles Schwab Cup Championship count toward the title.

The Grand Champions compete for weekly purses of $175,000, with $30,000 going to the winner. Each Grand Champions event is preceded by a Thursday pro-am, where Georgia-Pacific guests have the opportunity to play a round of golf with these legendary professionals. Past and present Grand Champions participants include Miller Barber, Billy Casper, Bob Charles, Jim Colbert, Raymond Floyd, Gene Littler, Gary Player, Dave Stockton and Lee Trevino. Don January is the all-time leader with 35 Grand Champions victories.

Tom Wargo won the 2003 money title, with $219,313 in earnings and two titles. Isao Aoki, who finished second, won the most titles (three). Other two-time winners included Charles and Mike Hill, and single winners Dale Douglass, J.C. Snead and Stockton.

While Grand Champions earnings do not count toward the Champions Tour official money list, players also are eligible to collect official prize money for their finishes in the regular tournament. A player has won the Grand Champions event and the regular tournament in the same week six times, most recently at the 2002 Greater Baltimore Classic, when Snead snapped a seven-year winless streak.

The season-ending Georgia-Pacific Grand Champions Championship will be held in conjunction with the Charles Schwab Cup Championship (Oct. 18-24). The purse at the Grand Champions Championship is $400,000. The top 16 players on the Grand Champions money list heading into the event are eligible to compete. Aoki won the 2003 title.

The First Tee

The First Tee is a World Golf Foundation initiative introduced in November of 1997 for the purpose of providing affordable golf access to everyone, especially children, who otherwise may not have the opportunity to play the game.

Over the past six years, The First Tee has evolved into a credible youth initiative where participants are positively influenced through exposure to important values and life skills while learning and playing the game of golf.

The First Tee Life Skills & Golf Experience is a program based on a set of Nine Core Values and developed around a curriculum that seamlessly incorporates life skills, such as goal setting, self discipline and self awareness, into each session. Children learn about themselves and others through exercises that teach lessons and skills that can be used both on and off the golf course.

Much of The First Tee's success is directly attributed to the support and guidance of five leading golf institutions in America that are The First Tee Founding Partners—the PGA TOUR, PGA of America, Ladies Professional Golf Association, United States Golf Association and Augusta National Golf Club. The support of these organizations, along with various individuals, associations, corporations, cities, counties and states, has helped The First Tee to develop facilities and programs where The First Tee Life Skills & Golf Experience can be delivered in communities across the country.

Building upon the accomplishment of achieving its initial goal of over 100 facilities in development by the end of the year 2000, The First Tee has set out to fulfill several new objectives by the end of 2005, which include:

- Introducing the game of golf and its values to 500,000 young people
- Expanding the number of dedicated The First Tee facilities to 250 that are either open or in development
- Establishing 500 affiliate relationships with existing golf courses or other golf facilities that will provide access to The First Tee Experience

The First Tee is well on its way to achieving these objectives and looking forward to the next phase of a very bright and exciting future. The First Tee is grateful for the extraordinary commitment of the Chapter volunteers and staff combined with the local businesses and political leaders in each community who have embraced it.

For more information about The First Tee and how you might become involved, please visit www.thefirsttee.org.

The First Tee, led by Executive Director Joe Louis Barrow, continues to introduce golf to kids.

Golf 20/20: Vision for the Future

In November 2000, senior members of the golf industry came together at World Golf Village for a conference called Golf 20/20: Vision for the Future, and embarked on an unprecedented collaborative effort to enhance the future of the game. The spirit of unity was so strong, and the commitment to make a difference so universal, that the decision was made to address some very specific issues and to make GOLF 20/20 an ongoing industry effort.

GOLF 20/20 is a World Golf Foundation initiative that was started with the following stated mission: To align the golf industry behind a plan that addresses the future of golf in a strategic manner, with an emphasis on accelerating growth and participation, and creating new avenues of access into the game. The focus of the conference was not only on participation but also on interest, and three major targets were established with the goal of fulfilling them by the year 2020:

- Golf would be at a level of popularity in the United States equal to the National Football League.
- There would be 55 million participants in golf in the U.S.
- There would be one billion rounds of golf played each year.

Over the past several years a number of research projects have been undertaken, several communications initiatives started, and a variety of programs tested or implemented. The main areas of focus for GOLF 20/20 include the following:

Adult Player Development—The goal of 20/20's adult player development activities is to introduce new adult players into the game, bring former players back to the game, and encourage greater levels of play by infrequent golfers. At the 2003 conference the PGA of America announced an umbrella concept called Play Golf America, under which the industry's major adult development initiatives will fall. This effort will commence in the spring of 2004 and receive unprecedented support from all areas of the golf industry.

Junior Golf—The USGA and its Foundation have overseen GOLF 20/20's efforts in junior golf, most notably the establishment of the ultimate junior golf Web site, juniorlinks.com, which includes a database of junior programs around the country. The Web site is a resource for youngsters, their parents and for junior golf program administrators. In 2003, GOLF 20/20 focused on developing a National School Golf Program, which will be tested in 150 elementary schools in eight locations during the 2003-2004 school year. In 2003-2004 GOLF 20/20 is testing a school program through which physical educators teach the game in elementary school as part of a PE curriculum. This program will be aggressively expanded in the future.

Communication—In 2002 an industry Web site was established at www.golf2020.com; it houses all 20/20 research, reports and databases. In 2002, GOLF 20/20 presented its first Industry Report, a global look at the state of the game.

Research—To supplement existing information GOLF 20/20 commissioned in 2001 an unprecedented study of segments within the game, information that was instrumental in formulating strategies. In 2002, two other studies were commissioned. The first revealed that golf is responsible for more than 3.2 billion dollars being generated for charities in the U.S. each year. The second estimated the total golf economy in this country to be more than $60 billion annually. In 2003 major research studies were done on frequency of play, and on minority participation in golf. All research information is available at golf2020.com.

In its first three years the GOLF 20/20 Executive Board consisted of seven people, six of them representing associations. In an effort to bring more business diversity to the Board, it has been expanded to include 15 members. The new Executive Board includes:

Jim Awtrey, CEO, PGA of America

Joe Louis Barrow, Executive Director, The First Tee

Bob Dedman, Jr., Chairman and CEO, ClubCorp

Ron Drapeau, CEO, Callaway

David Fay, Executive Director, United States Golf Association

PGA TOUR LINKS

The PGA TOUR LINKS program is the technology solution that links together PGA TOUR and Champions Tour players, TOUR staff and tournament organizations. Along with IBM, the TOUR's technology partner, the PGA TOUR and its players worked hand-in-hand to design a solution that fits their communications and management needs.

As part of the TOUR LINKS program, each player receives an IBM ThinkPad computer and Internet access, allowing him to log onto the PGA TOUR LINKS Web site from anywhere in the world. Within the site itself, players are able to access information, including vital PGA TOUR announcements, tournament information, tee times, personal statistics and PGA TOUR policies. Players also are able to send and receive e-mail, commit to tournaments, submit survey responses and vote in player elections.

In addition, eligible players are also provided with a Palm handheld device unit, with wireless access. From their individual units, players are able to access their tee times, pro-am times, commitment information, tournament phone numbers, tournament results and live scoring. Players can also surf thousands of Web-clipping applications, as well as keep electronic address books and calendars.

To date, more than 400 players are involved in the PGA TOUR LINKS program. As the program enters its fifth year, it continues to evolve to meet changing technological advances and player needs.

Also in 2003, a managers version of the Links program was developed to enhance the communications between the PGA TOUR staff and player representatives.

ShotLink

The PGA TOUR has collaborated with IBM, the TOUR's Official Worldwide Information Technology Partner, on the PGA TOUR ShotLink System. The ShotLink System is a revolutionary platform for collecting and disseminating scoring and statistical data on every shot by every player in real-time during every tournament round.

The development of ShotLink started in 1997 when the TOUR decided to update its current scoring system, which was based on 1987 technology. The TOUR, in conjunction with IBM, conducted an extensive review process to formulate its strategy for the development and implementation of ShotLink. Following an evaluation of more than 30 companies, additional technology and implementation partners were identified: Information and Display Systems (IDS), Palm, Electronic Arts, Daktronics and two mapping vendors: GeoGolf and Geodetic Services. IBM provided overall project management, consulting services and server and networking technologies. ShotLink was introduced during the 2001 Buick Classic and represents the TOUR's scoring system for the future.

The accumulation, packaging and presentation of expanded shot and course information provides the basis for numerous fan enhancements. Current uses of ShotLink data include:

- Enhanced graphics and statistics in television broadcasts

- Expanded information and statistics for use by media
- Powering on-site and PGATOUR.COM tournament leaderboards
- Providing on-site media and hospitality access to live tournament information through Tournament Tracker, developed by IBM
- Powering PGA TOUR Mobile Link, the PGA TOUR's wireless application for use on PDAs and cell phones (available on PGATOUR.COM)
- Powering the exclusive AT&T Wireless #121 golf service
- Powering the TOURcast application on PGATOUR.COM, which launched in 2003

In addition to current uses, ShotLink provides unlimited potential to develop fan enhancements and products over the next several years, including:

- Enhanced and interactive television
- On-site wireless and kiosk applications for tournament patrons
- Internet, PC and console games

Besides fan enhancements, ShotLink creates an ongoing historical archive of statistical information. This information is available to players through the PGA TOUR Links program, also built by IBM.

The ShotLink data is collected by volunteers utilizing a combination of Palm handheld devices and laser range finders.

Tournament Players Clubs

Tournament Players Club

The PGA TOUR's Tournament Players Club network has maintained a reputation for operating high-quality clubs since its inception 24 years ago. The TPC network continues to grow, with more than 30 facilities currently open or under construction, including several overseas.

TPCs encompass all forms of golf-related operations—resort facilities, corporate/private membership clubs and daily fee courses—and, as such, PGA TOUR Golf Course Properties, Inc. is able to match the type of facility with the demands of each market in which a club operates.

The network represents the highest standard in the golf course industry, commensurate with the members of the organization it represents, the players of the PGA TOUR. Each Tournament Players Club embodies the trademark of excellence first established with the flagship TPC at Sawgrass, which opened its world-famous Stadium Course in the fall of 1980 in Ponte Vedra Beach, FL. This commitment to overall excellence serves as the foundation for the network's overall success.

The TPC network was born through former PGA TOUR Commissioner Deane Beman's desire to provide TOUR players with quality golf courses that also would offer spectators enhanced viewing areas. Beman also reasoned that development of quality facilities would alleviate the TOUR's dependency on the television dollar, while providing rent-free venues for tournaments. The savings in rent, in turn, would generate both increased purses and greater charitable contributions by the tournaments held at TPCs.

The TPC at Sawgrass was the first Tournament Players Club to hold a PGA TOUR event, becoming the permanent home of THE PLAYERS Championship in 1982. In 2003, 15 tournaments were conducted on TPC courses, bringing the total number of PGA TOUR, Champions Tour and Nationwide Tour events held at TPC facilities to 220.

Many of the top golf course architects are connected with Tournament Players Club projects, including Pete Dye, Tom Fazio, Arnold Palmer, Jack Nicklaus, Gary Player, Arthur Hills, Jay Morrish, Tom Weiskopf, Greg Norman, Bob Von Hagge and D.A. Weibring. The Tournament Players Club of Boston, which opened in 2002, was the fourth TPC course designed by Palmer Course Design Co. Weiskopf has designed his second TPC course for the new Tournament Players Club at Craig Ranch near Dallas, TX, scheduled to open in the fall of 2004.

Moreover, in recognizing the importance of player input for tournament courses, TOUR members have served as design consultants, working closely with the lead architect. Mark O'Meara, for instance, served as the player design consultant on the Tournament Players Club at Valencia (CA), which opened in June 2003, while Steve Elkington is the player consultant and Kelly Gibson the associate player consultant working with architect Pete Dye on the Tournament Players Club of Louisiana in New Orleans, scheduled to open in the spring.

Weather Guidelines

Every effort will be made to finish each round as scheduled by Sunday. The first priority is always the competition and completion of 72 holes.

In an effort to achieve this objective by Sunday, 36 holes may be played on Sunday following a reduction of the field to the score which has the closest number of professionals to 60. If an equal number of professionals are at scores above and below the 60th position, the higher score will be used.

If conditions exist which prevent 72 holes from being completed by Sunday, play will always be extended to Monday if golf course conditions and the weather forecast permit. Play on Monday could include 36 holes.

If conditions exist which make the completion of 72 holes impossible, the next priority is to complete 54 holes; thereby the winner is credited with an official victory. Again, play in this situation will always be extended to Monday if conditions and weather permit.

If conditions exist which make the completion of 54 holes impossible, the next priority is to complete 36 holes; thereby players receive official money, although the winner is credited with an unofficial victory. Again, play in this situation may be extended to Monday.

In making decisions to extend play beyond Sunday or to reduce the tournament to fewer than 72 holes due to inclement weather, the on-site Tournament Director discusses the situation and conditions with a number of parties, including the host organization, title sponsor, host site (general manager and/or golf course superintendent), on-site weather forecaster, television representatives and the other members of the Rules Committee. Players typically have not been included in these discussions as the TOUR believes it is inappropriate for the Rules Committee to discuss matters directly affecting the competition with contestants.

World Golf Foundation

WORLD GOLF FOUNDATION

World Golf Foundation, a not-for-profit, 501(c)3 organization, was created in 1994 to unite the golf industry and those who love the game.

The board supports initiatives that promote, enhance the growth of, and provide access to the game of golf, while preserving golf's traditional values and passing them on to others.

There are four initiatives under the umbrella of the World Golf Foundation: the World Golf Hall of Fame, The First Tee, GOLF 20/20: Vision for the Future and the National Minority Golf Foundation. Each initiative has its own mission to enhance the game of golf's history, present and future.

World Golf Hall of Fame—Conceptualized in the late 1980s and open since 1998, it is committed to preserving golf's rich heritage, honoring the great players and contributors to the sport and setting the stage for future generations to learn about and enjoy the game. Members are honored in the 75,000 square-foot museum located at World Golf Village in St. Augustine, FL.

The First Tee—Announced in November of 1997, The First Tee is dedicated to providing affordable access to golf and strives to instill in young people life-enhancing values such as honesty, integrity, sportsmanship and respect. These values are seamlessly taught through The First Tee Life Skills & Golf Experience, one of the unique features that differentiates The First Tee from many other successful junior golf programs. The intent is to offer opportunities for improvement in the quality of life and create a platform where children can increase their potential for success. The First Tee partners with local not-for-profit entities and municipalities to form The First Tee Chapters, which are responsible for developing The First Tee golf learning facilities. Currently, there are more than 135 open facilities spanning 40 states and two continents, including programs in Canada and Singapore.

GOLF 20/20: Vision for the Future—Initiated in 1999, it is devoted to aligning the golf industry behind a plan that addresses the future of golf in a strategic manner, with an emphasis on accelerating growth and participation and creating new avenues of access into the game.

National Minority Golf Program—Coming under the World Golf Foundation umbrella in 2001, it is primarily focused on developing career opportunities in golf for minorities.

World Golf Hall of Fame

Open since 1998, the World Golf Hall of Fame is the ultimate destination for the celebration and recognition of golf's greatest players and contributors and serves as an inspiration to golfers and golf fans worldwide. Supported by all of the world's leading golf organizations, the Hall of Fame honors its members through a creative, interactive and compelling guest experience. The World Golf Hall of Fame is located at World Golf Village in St. Augustine, FL.

The Members

The 71 players and contributors inducted into the former Hall of Fame in Pinehurst, NC, and the LPGA Hall of Fame were "grandfathered" into the World Golf Hall of Fame at the first induction ceremony held at World Golf Village in May 1998.

Nick Faldo and Johnny Miller were the first new players to be inducted into the World Golf Hall of Fame, and Amy Alcott, Seve Ballesteros and Lloyd Mangrum entered in 1999. Beth Daniel, Juli Inkster and Judy Rankin were inducted as part of the 2000 induction ceremony, along with Deane Beman, Sir Michael Bonallack, Jack Burke Jr., John Jacobs and Neil Coles. Donna Caponi, Karsten Solheim, Judy Bell, Allan Robertson, Payne Stewart and Greg Norman were inducted in 2001 and were followed by Tommy Bolt, Ben Crenshaw, Marlene Hagge, Tony Jacklin, Bernhard Langer and Harvey Penick in 2002. In 2003, Leo Diegel, Hisako "Chako" Higuchi, Nick Price and Annika Sorenstam were brought in, pushing the total number of inductees to 100.

The Museum

The World Golf Hall of Fame includes memorabilia from its members as well as interactive exhibits and historical artifacts. In October of 2003, four new exhibits were unveiled to pay tribute to the Class of 2003, including the PGA TOUR's Nick Price. The exhibits follow the lives and careers of the most recent inductees through memorabilia and photos.

The museum also includes a life-size replica of the famous Swilcan Burn Bridge, an artificial 1880s-style putting green, with a hickory-shafted putter and gutta-percha ball from the era, and a state-of-the-art golf simulator, which allows guests to experience any one of more than 40 famous courses found around the world. The experience is never the same, with the museum's Wachovia Gallery featuring a new exhibit each year.

Guests visiting the Hall of Fame have the opportunity to take a fascinating one-hour behind-the-scenes tour with one of its knowledgeable volunteers. Visitors wishing to tour at their own pace can use a hand-held Acoustiguide®, with self-guided tours available in five languages.

Education

As part of its mission to be an inspiration to golfers and fans throughout the world, the World Golf Hall of Fame offers several initiatives to educate and connect children with the game. Three programs, sponsored by Shell Oil Company, are offered to teach children about various principles involved in the game: "Science of Golf," "Great Scot! Who Thought Up This Game Anyway?" and "The Grass is Always Greener on the Other Side." The fourth program, "Community Field Trip Fund," was established to provide area schools and children's charities the opportunity to see educational films at the World Golf Hall of Fame's IMAX® Theater.

As sole founding partner of World Golf Hall of Fame, Shell Oil Company provides financial support to the World Golf Foundation and supports its charitable initiatives aimed at introducing golf to young people, thereby promoting scholastic achievement, community service and those values intrinsic to the game of golf.

World Golf Hall of Fame PGA TOUR Pioneers/Members

Willie Anderson (1975)

The son of a Scottish greenskeeper, Anderson emigrated to the U.S. at age 15 and became the first dominant player in America. He won the U.S. Open four times before age 27, including three consecutively from 1903 to 1905. Anderson finished in the top five 11 of the 14 times that he competed in the national championship.

Tommy Armour (1976)

A native of Edinburgh, the "Silver Scot" won the 1927 U.S. Western Open, the 1930 PGA Championship and the 1931 British Open. One of golf's most respected instructors, Armour excelled despite injuries suffered in World War I that left him with one eye and with metal plates in his head and arm.

Jim Barnes (1989)

An assistant pro in England at age 15, Barnes came to America at 19, and between 1916 and 1925 won all the major tournaments of his day: the Western Open in 1914, 1917 and 1919; the first two PGA Championships in 1916 and 1919; the 1921 U.S. Open; and the 1925 British Open.

Deane Beman (2000)

Commissioner of the PGA TOUR from 1974-1994, he created the Champions Tour, the Nationwide Tour and developed the "stadium golf" concept. As a player, Beman won the 1959 British Amateur, the 1960 and 1963 U.S. Amateurs, competed on four U.S. Walker Cup Teams and captured four PGA TOUR titles.

Tommy Bolt (2002)

Bolt was best known for his impeccable ball striking, colorful personality, stylish clothes and occasional temper tantrums. He did not join the U.S. tour until 1950 when he was 32. Bolt won the U.S. Open at age 40 and captured 15 TOUR titles. He was a founding member of the Champions Tour.

Julius Boros (1982)

An accountant by trade, Boros turned professional at age 30. Just two years later, in 1952, he won the U.S. Open and was named PGA Player of the Year. He claimed a second U.S. Open in 1963 at The Country Club in Brookline, MA, and in 1968 captured the PGA Championship at age 48.

Jack Burke, Jr. (2000)

A member of five U.S. Ryder Cup teams, serving as captain twice, Burke captured 15 PGA TOUR titles, including the 1956 Masters Tournament and 1956 PGA Championship. He won four consecutive tournaments in 1952. Burke is co-founder and president of the Champions Club in Houston, TX.

Billy Casper (1978)

A brilliant putter, Casper won the Vardon Trophy for lowest scoring average five times and was a member of eight Ryder Cup teams. Of his 60 career victories, three were major championships, including the 1966 U.S. Open, when he came from seven strokes back with nine holes to play to tie Arnold Palmer, then won their playoff.

Harry Cooper (1992)

Known as "Lighthorse Harry" for the speed at which he played, Cooper won more than 30 professional tournaments between 1926 and 1942. He was never able to capture a major championship, finishing second on three occasions. In 1937, he won nine tournaments and was the first winner of the Vardon Trophy for lowest scoring average.

Fred Corcoran (1975)

As tournament manager of the PGA of America from 1936 to 1947, Corcoran more than doubled the number of tour events. Working with Babe Zaharias and Patty Berg, and with financial support from Wilson, he was instrumental in forming the LPGA Tour in 1949. ## Regulations – Media

The following regulations are to be followed by all members of the media:

1. A daily decal is necessary to walk inside the gallery ropes. All members of the media with such decal must remain not more than an arm's length from the ropes, so as to blend into the gallery and appear to be a part of the gallery at all times.
2. Players are not to be distracted during play. Do not interview players or ask them to pose for photographs during their rounds.
3. Do not interview players or ask them to pose for photographs during their practice sessions before a round, except by prior arrangement with the player.
4. If an interview is to be conducted in the practice areas, either the range or the putting green, it must be done by prior arrangement with the player, up against the ropes and not in the middle of the areas where it could be distracting to other players.
5. Do not disturb players at their 18th green and/or scoring tent until after they have checked, signed and returned their scorecards. Media are not allowed in the scoring tent.

Working Press Regulations

To avoid embarrassment to you and distraction to the contestants:

1. Do not walk or stand in playing areas.
2. Follow directions of marshals and other officials.
3. Do not interview during play. The leading players each day — and others requested — will be interviewed following their rounds in the Press Room interview area.

Tape Recorder Regulations

1. All tape recorder and/or video recorder work should be done in the proximity of the Press Room and/or clubhouse.

2. Tape recorders and/or video recorders are not permitted in the locker room.
3. Tape recorders and/or video recorders are not permitted within the playing area of the golf course unless written permission has been granted from PGA TOUR.

Weather Delay Guidelines

1. During weather-delay situations, no one other than players and essential staff will be permitted in the locker room. This means the media are not permitted in the locker room in such situations. However, whenever possible, arrangements will be made to provide players for interviews during such situations.
2. Fully accredited members of the news media will be welcome in the locker room at all other times to carry out their assigned duties. (Note: Cameras and tape recorders are not permitted in the locker room.)

The media person set forth below and the News Agency set forth below shall jointly and severally indemnify, defend and hold the Event, its host organizations and PGA TOUR and their respective officers, agents, representatives, successors and assigns harmless from and against any and all expenses, lawsuits, damages, costs and liabilities (including reasonable attorney's fees and expenses) incurred by, arising from, or in connection with, any actions of the media person set forth below.

The credentialed entity assumes all risk and danger incidental to the game of golf and releases PGA TOUR, Inc.-sanctioned tournaments and competitions and their host sites, title sponsors, host organizations, PGA TOUR, Inc., participating players, and all agents thereof from any and all liabilities resulting from such cases. The holders of the media credential grant permission to PGA TOUR, Inc., to utilize the holders' images or likenesses incidental to any live or recorded television or other transmission or reproduction in whole or in part of any PGA TOUR event they attend.

PGA TOUR MAY REVOKE CREDENTIALS AT ANY TIME FOR ANY REASON INCLUDING VIOLATIONS OF ANY OF THE FOREGOING REGULATIONS.

Regulations – On-Line Services

Media credentials will be issued only to personnel on assignment from recognized golf or legitimate news Internet sites, as determined by PGA TOUR in its sole discretion. Coverage obtained in accordance with these regulations can only be used on the credentialed website. Individuals representing multiple interests (such as a recognized golf magazine and an internet site) must agree to be bound by all applicable media regulations.

PGA TOUR retains exclusive media rights (including but not limited to network, cable, Internet, home video) to all events on the PGA TOUR, Champions Tour and Nationwide Tour. No audio or video coverage of any event is permitted without the prior written consent of PGA TOUR. Scores and statistics may be distributed only in accordance with these regulations.

1. Coverage must be part of the news portion of the Internet site identified below (the "Credentialed Site") and must not purport to be live, play-by-play or real-time coverage from the course.
2. Scoring and statistical information may only appear in the editorial news portion of the Credentialed Site and may be provided no sooner than 30 minutes after the actual occurrence of the shots, or after the time such information is legally available as public information if sooner than thirty minutes after the actual occurrence of the shots. No scoring or statistical information may be used by, sold, given, distributed or otherwise transferred to any party other than the Credentialed Site in any manner whatsoever, without the prior written consent of PGA TOUR.
3. Photographic images of PGA TOUR, Champions Tour and Nationwide Tour players may be used on the Credentialed Site for legitimate news coverage only, and may be used together with news stories during the day's play, so long as such photographs are not used with other real-time or near-real-time information to create a "shot-by-shot" account of the day's play. Commercial exploitation of these images without written consent of the players and PGA TOUR is prohibited.

4. The Credentialed Site has rights only with respect to website media and has no rights with respect to any other media (including, without limitation, cellular or wireless devices) without the prior approval of the PGA TOUR.

The media person set forth below and the Internet Site set forth below shall jointly and severally indemnify, defend and hold the Event, its host organizations and PGA TOUR and their respective officers, agents, representatives, successors and assigns harmless from and against any and all expenses, lawsuits, damages, costs and liabilities (including reasonable attorney's fees and expenses) incurred by, arising from, or in connection with, any actions of the media person set forth below.

The credentialed entity assumes all risk and danger incidental to the game of golf and releases PGA TOUR, Inc.-sanctioned tournaments and competitions and their host sites, title sponsors, host organizations, PGA TOUR, Inc., participating players, and all agents thereof from any and all liabilities resulting from such cases. The holders of the media credential grant permission to PGA TOUR, Inc., to utilize the holders' images or likenesses incidental to any live or recorded television or other transmission or reproduction in whole or in part of any PGA TOUR event they attend.

PGA TOUR MAY REVOKE CREDENTIALS AT ANY TIME FOR ANY REASON INCLUDING VIOLATIONS OF ANY OF THE FOREGOING REGULATIONS.

Regulations – Photography

Photo credentials will be issued only to personnel on assignment from recognized and accredited publications or news services. Requests for photo credentials must be made by the appropriate news agency, not by the photographer. The credentialed entity has rights only with respect to photography and has no rights with respect to any other media without obtaining the proper and valid credentials for such media.

Photographic likenesses of PGA TOUR, Champions Tour and Nationwide Tour players and tournament courses may be used only by the news agency which the photographer represents for legitimate news coverage only. Any other use must be approved in advance in writing by the PGA TOUR. Photographs taken hereunder may not be archived nor sold or distributed in any manner without PGA TOUR's prior approval.

Photographs taken at any PGA TOUR, Champions Tour or Nationwide Tour tournament may not be sold or commercially exploited in any manner without the prior written consent of the PGA TOUR and the applicable course(s) and player(s).

Credentialed photographers will receive one of two types of photo credentials. A limited number of inside the rope photo credentials will be issued daily by the PGA TOUR Media Official on site and will permit the wearer access inside the ropes.
